Go after hate speech suo motu, SC to cops

Don't wait for formal complaint, it tells DGPs in Delhi, UP, U'khand

SHRUTI KAKKAR @New Delhi

APPALLED at the proliferation of hate speech, the Supreme Court on Friday directed the police chiefs of Delhi, Uttarakhand and UP to immediately take suo motu action against people irrespective of religion who make them without waiting for a formal complaint.

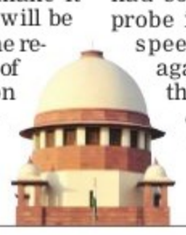
"We make it clear that any hesitation to act in accordance with this direction will be viewed as contempt of this court and appropriate action will be taken against the erring officers. We further make it clear that such action will be taken irrespective of the religion that the maker of the speech or the person who commit such act belongs to, so that the secular character of Bharat as is envisaged by the Preamble, is preserved and protected," the a bench of justices K M Joseph and Hrishikesh Roy said.

They also directed the police chiefs of the three states to file an action taken report regarding incidents of hate speech within their jurisdiction. "This is the 21st century. What have we reduced God to? Article 51 says we should have a scientific temper. Where have we reached? In the name of religion, it's tragic," the bench observed.

The order came in a petition filed by Shaheen Abdullah who had sought an independent probe into incidents of hate speech and hate crimes against Muslims in these three states. Senior advocate Kapil Sibal, appearing for Abdullah, said that irrespective of the existence of penal provisions and courts asking the police to take preventive action on hate speech, no action had been taken. He said he was forced to approach the court after an October 9 event in Delhi where hate speeches against Muslims were made.

"These statements are very disturbing for a country which professes to be a democracy and religion neutral," Justice Hrishikesh Roy said. The court asked Sibal if hate speeches were being made by Muslim too. "Are Muslim making hate speeches too? Both sides are actually," Justice Joseph said. "Anybody who makes such speeches should not be spared," Sibal responded

The bench said, "The Constitution of India envisages Bharat as a secular nation and fraternity assuring the dignity of the individual and unity and the integrity of the country is the guiding principle... There cannot be fraternity unless members of community drawn from different religions or castes of the country are able to live in harmony."



NEED TO PRESERVE CONSTITUTIONAL VALUES

"We feel that this court is charged with the duty to protect the fundamental rights and also preserve the constitutional values and the secular democratic character of the nation and in particular, the rule of law," the division bench said in its written order

Lobbying on as Kharge set to revamp Cong team

SHAHID FARIDI @New Delhi

NEWLY-ELECTED Congress president Mallikarjun Kharge will formally take charge from Sonia Gandhi on October 26. His appointment will be followed by a complete revamp of organisational bodies, including the Congress Working Committee, frontal organisations, departments and cells.

Kharge will also choose the new team at AICC, including general secretaries and secretaries. Lobbying has started for the all-powerful post of AICC general secretary (organisation) which is currently held by K C Venugopal. Sources said this post may go to a leader from north India as the president comes from Karnataka, and Rahul Gandhi, who would continue to wield influence in party matters, represents Kerala in Parliament.

Rahul will take a two-day break from the Bharat Jodo Yatra to attend the event where Kharge will take charge.

Kharge is expected to convene an AICC plenary session before the end of this calendar year where the CWC elections will be held to choose 12 new members of the party's highest decision-making body. The CWC members will be elected by nearly 1,400 AICC members who will attend the plenary.

Sources said Kharge is likely to make some top-ranking appointments in the AICC before the party plenary in order to put together his team for the CWC elections. If the Gandhi family and Kharge allow a free and fair election to the CWC, a large number of sitting members could lose their place in the body. The CWC has 23 members, besides the Congress president. Twelve of them are elected while the rest are nominated to ensure representation to sections that lose out in elections.

Kharge will also play a crucial role in the election of state party presidents. The fate of the disciplinary panel set up to recommend action against three leaders from Rajasthan who prevented the state MLAs from meeting central observers also hangs in the balance.

SC REJECTS PIL ON OPENING TAJ MAHAL'S 22 ROOMS

SHRUTI KAKKAR @New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Friday junked a plea filed by a BJP leader seeking to open 22 rooms on the Taj Mahal premises to check the presence of Hindu idols, terming it 'publicity interest litigation'.

A bench of justices M R Shah and M M Sundresh refused to interfere with the Allahabad High Court's May 12 order dismissing the plea filed by Rajnish Singh, the media in-charge of the BJP's Ayodhya unit. Singh argued there is no scientific evidence to support the theory that Taj Mahal was built by Emperor Shahjahan. The petitioner also prayed that a fact-finding committee be set up to study and publish the monument's 'real history'.

Singh had sought a directive from the court to the Archaeological Survey of India to open the locks of the upper and lower part of the monument and to remove the walls that were blocking the rooms.

However, the high court said the issues were not judicially determinable. It also pulled up the petitioner's lawyer for filing the Public Interest Litigation in a "casual" manner and said it could not pass an order under Article 226 in the matter. Singh then moved the Supreme Court, which has now rejected the petition.

Pakistan must continue to take credible, verfiable, irreversible and sustained action against terrorism

MEA spokersperson

YESHI SELI @New Delhi

IN a major relief for cash-strapped Pakistan, Paris-based Financial Action Task Force (FATF) on Friday took the terror-tainted country out of its inglorious 'grey list' (increased monitoring), four years after it was placed on it.

With the negativity gone, Islamabad will now be in a better position to seek financial aid from the International Monetary Fund, the World Bank, the Asian Development Bank and the European Union to support its economy.

Announcing the decision after the two-day plenary in Paris on Friday, FATF president Raja Kumar said Pakistan's leadership showed a high-level of commitment to combat financial terrorism and money laundering.

Pakistan was put in the grey list in 2018 for its failure to check risk of money laundering, leading to terror financing. Reacting to the development, the Ministry of External Affairs said Pakistan has to further imporve its counter terror financing sytem. "Pakistan must continue to take credible, verfiable, irreversible and sustained action against terrorism and terrorist financing emanating from territories under its control," said MEA spokersperson Arindam Bagchi.

In other decisions, the FATF put Myanmar in the "high risk jurisdictions subject to a call for action", often referred to as the terror financing watchdog's black list. Iran and North Korea continue to be in the black list, while Russia has been barred from the future FATF projects.

Close shave for students as Maharani's College lab building in Mysuru collapses

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Mysuru

STUDENTS and staff members of the century-old Maharani's Arts and Science College for Women in Mysuru had a miraculous escape when the roof of the chemical lab in the heritage building came crashing down within minutes after they vacated the lab.

It was due to the presence of mind of the college principal D Ravi that a major tragedy was averted. Ravi was in his chamber around 9.45 am when the chemistry department head K K Padmanabha brought to his notice the water seepage in the roof and cracks developed in the walls.

Sensing danger, Ravi asked the staff to turn off the power supply and lock the door of the lab. Five minutes later, the entire lab building collapsed.

"When HoD Padmanabha called me, I went to the lab to inspect the damage around 10.25 am along with three other lecturers. I clicked pictures of the plaster which was peeling off from the ceiling on my cellphone and returned to my chamber. I immediately called MLA L Nagendra and requested him to take up repair works. But within minutes, the building collapsed," he said.

Palike engineers to get lessons on fixing potholes

Experts will train officials on addressing issue at seminar on Oct 31

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

UNDER fire over its inability to fill the increasing number of potholes in the city, some of which have led to fatal accidents in the last few months, the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) has decided to train its engineers attached with road infrastructure on how to cover potholes.

Talking to TNIE, BBMP Engineer-In-Chief, B S Prahalad said, "On October 31, a seminar will be held at Town Hall and Technical Advisory Committee, retired engineers like Prof Jaya Gopal, Jagadeesh and other experts will train BBMP engineers on how to fill potholes. The Palike is not engaging any private player nor will it be sanctioning any funds to any private agency. The day-long seminar will throw light on how to address the issue and ensure that potholes are fixed in a way that they sustain for a longer time."

Initially, it was reported that the Palike, which spends Rs 30 crore annually to fix potholes, has engaged private agencies to train BBMP engineers.

Recently, over 27,000 potholes were found in BBMP's limits under 'Fix My Street Application', of which 14,000 potholes have been filled with bitumen mix and 4,000 complaints were ignored as the officials found them to be not so serious.

Several motorists have met with fatal accidents related to potholes in the recent past. Only last week, a woman pillion rider was run over by a bus after her daughter, who was riding a two-wheeler, lost balance and fell while trying to negotiate a pothole.

Girinath sends forest official back to parent department

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

BRUHAT Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath on Friday ordered that R Krishna, Assistant Conservator Of Forests of Yelahanka Zone, be sent back to his parent department. Girinath was on morning city rounds, inspecting basic infrastructure in Yelahanka.

Krishna was transferred following complaints against him from the public and MLA SR Vishwanath, that there is no cooperation from the BBMP Forest Cell, and many tree complaints remain unresolved.

The MLA told the Commissioner to speed up the Rs 198-crore Yelahanka-Doddaballapura flyover and take up the project under 'emergency' category. MLA Vishwanath said if this flyover project is complete, the route from Yelahanka Police Station to Sandeep Unnikrishnan Main Road will become signal-free.

The Commissioner covered the zone on foot, from NES Bus Stand to 16A Cross Service Road, Seshadripuram College Road, Sharavathi Hotel Road, Yelahanka New Town Bus Station, Sandeep Unnikrishnan Main Road and the road up to Attur ward.

He instructed officials to clear piles of tree branches placed in the middle of the road, and crush them with a shredder. He also asked officials to clear illegal sheds constructed on footpaths by building contractors, and told officials to give them notice. He told officials to repair pavements, shoulder drains and clear OFC cables to enable smooth movement of pedestrians.

Teachers warned to improve pass percentage

MOHAMMED YACOOB @BENGALURU

AFTER coming under the scanner for poor performance in PUC and SSLC exams over the last few years, the BBMP Education Department has issued a warning to its teachers to ensure a better pass percentage at their institutions. The teachers have to make sure that 70 per cent of PU students and 80 per cent of SSLC students pass the exams. If not, the department will consider replacing the teachers, it said.

Confirming this to TNIE, department Assistant Commissioner DS Umesh said the measures are being taken to improve the quality of education in Palike schools. "We will issue a circular concerning this in a day or two," he added.

Going a step further, Special Commissioner, BBMP Welfare Measures, Ramprasat Manohar, said the BBMP has outsourced an agency to train teachers which will have an impact on their teaching. "We are confident of improvement. In case the desired results are not seen, we will go for better teaching options. The future of students at BBMP schools and colleges is important," said Manohar.

Last year, the BBMP schools reported a pass percentage of 71.27 in SSLC exams and 66 in PUC exams.

The Palike has 33 high schools and 18 PU colleges, employing 728 contract and 180 permanent teachers. This year, 2,736 SSLC and 3,326 second PU students will appear for exams.

The authorities have also instructed schools to deny hall tickets to students who have shortage of attendance. The Palike education department believes that students who are not attending classes regularly will not be able to clear the exams as they will not be well prepared.

Metro trial run from Whitefield to ITPL brings hope to techies

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

A SMALL but significant milestone was achieved on Friday when the first trial run of a six-coach train between Whitefield depot and Pattandur Agrahara (ITPL) Station was conducted successfully. The start of the trial is of much significance as this 3.5-km stretch covering four stations forms part of the Baiyappanahalli-Whitefield line of Bengaluru Metro's Phase-II. Its launch has been keenly awaited by IT company employees for years.

Around 50 people, including staff from Bangalore Metro Rail Corporation Limited (BMRCL) and Bharat Earth Movers Limited (BEML), which supplied the new coaches to BMRCL, were on board the train. A puja was performed at the depot for its success.

"We began the trial run at 12.20pm from Whitefield depot and ended it at 1.40pm, running at a speed of 15km per hour. It was a smooth ride, the track was done well and we had no issues," said BMRCL MD Anjum Parwez, travelling on the debut run with N M Dhoke, Director of Rolling Stock, Electrical and Operations & Maintenance, and Jitendra Jha, Project Manager, Rolling Stock.

Parwez said, "The full train was dragged for a distance of 100 metres from the starting point of the depot on a massive trailer as the third rail (750V power line) is located a bit far for safety reasons. The train took the upward ramp from the depot to Whitefield station. We crossed Channasandra and Kadugodi stations before terminating at ITPL."

The MD also lauded the efforts and sleepless nights put in by Metro and BEML staff in the run-up to the launch, as it was advanced from October 25.

Dhoke said the trials will resume post-Deepawali. "After trials are completed, independent verification will be done for assurance of safety and signalling. The Commissioner of Metro Rail Safety (CMRS) will be invited after that."

Parwez said the trials will gradually touch Garudacharpalya, and will be over by February 2023, after which the CMRS processes will be done. "We will then discuss with the government and take a call on whether this stretch alone can be made operational or we will launch the entire line. Simultaneously, work on the pending portion from KR Puram to Baiyappanahalli will be done," he said.

HC seeks report on vending in residential zones

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court has asked the Bruhat Bangalore Mahanagara Palike (BBMP) to submit a report within eight weeks on the action taken to check commercial activities in residential areas in the city.

A division bench of Chief Justice Prasanna B Varale and Justice Ashok S Kinagi passed the order while hearing a public interest litigation filed by the Wilson Garden Residents Welfare Association seeking action against commercial activities in residential areas in violation of the law.

On the last date of hearing, the court had directed the Palike to identify commercial activities that were being carried out in residential areas without permission from the civic body. The petitioner had alleged that flower vendors carry on their business in residential zones and the BBMP has failed to stop them.

In response, the BBMP's counsel submitted that certain steps have been taken and notices issued certain vendors, and some time is required to file a comprehensive report.

The court directed the BBMP to indicate in the report the relevant provisions regarding permission granted to vendors and if there is total prohibition of commercial activities in residential areas.

The civic body should also state the conditions of the permissions, whether periodical checks are carried out by authorities, whether reports are submitted to superior officers and if the reports are acted upon or not, and the actions taken against the vendors.

Donation order for parents of schoolkids draws flak

ENS @Bengaluru

THE state government's move to make parents of government schoolchildren donate to their respective schools has drawn flak from politicians and several organisations.

Congress leaders like D K Shivakumar and Siddaramaiah hit out at the government for the decision, calling it another step towards the closure of government schools. "Charging parents when they are in financial distress. It is unscientific and in violation of a child's right to education," KPCC president D K Shivakumar said in a statement.

Opposition leader Siddaramaiah echoed a similar sentiment, calling the decision a way to loot poor parents. "The education department should immediately withdraw the order," he said.

The All India Democratic Students Organisation also condemned the decision, stating that it is another example of the government shirking its responsibilities towards its schools.

Daily Starscope

PETER VIDAL

22th October: Taurean alignments are significant right now. But how should we react? There are two ways to take such patterns forward. One is to dig our heels in and refuse to change, whatever the pressures. The other is to accept that life must adapt, and that it is still possible to hang on to all that is best about the past.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)
A great many of you will either be doing a spot of over-time in a special activity or finding some equivalent way to pursue your favourite ambitions. It doesn't matter if you are nowhere near your place of work, for you'll always find ways to keep busy. That may not mean that you can't see friends today, only that your priorities are different.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)
It seems more than likely that you will have to wait until tomorrow if you wish to kick-start someone, or something, into action at home. Today is an ideal time to pursue a private fantasy, though. If you find someone who shares your dreams, then you'll be fortunate indeed.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)
Practical planets maintain a focus on business. Even if all financial issues have been tidied up, there is still a pressing need to be cool and efficient. Cash questions can be delayed, but if you want to pick up a bargain then there's no better time.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)
The magnitude of coming emotional developments is such that you'd be strongly advised to plan ahead. Just for today, good relations with partners are essential. At home, learn to say 'no' to people who see you as an easy touch. But how did they get this impression? From you, perhaps?

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)
It's an ideal period for routine chores and quick repair jobs. Save tomorrow for the biggest and best social events, and spare no effort to bring people together. Also, look after partners' interests, for there are things which you know that they don't, and experiences you've had, which they can learn from.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)
Today's planetary picture may not be perfect but it's close! If you have any choice in the matter, change travel plans now to suit your interests. Also, resolve any outstanding differences with children, and talk to younger relations - they might actually have some good advice to offer.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)
Today's personal developments continue what was initiated yesterday. If you can possibly make any alterations or adjustments in family arrangements, please do so immediately. If you leave it too long, then you'll find that other people may be unwilling to change.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)
You're not one to waste your time on small talk. There is far too much at stake to follow up dead ends and emotional cul-de-sacs, no matter how other people beg or plead. Make them see the basic facts first, and let them know you'll listen when you figure out what they're talking about.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)
Don't think of practical necessities as an unwelcome intrusion into your otherwise adventurous affairs, but as a vital stepping-stone towards the achievement of a very special life-long ambition. Even the most tedious activities can be enjoyable if you'd only change your attitude.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)
The stars are saying two things; stay busy but spend time with your family. As far as money is concerned, you should think ahead. You may also delay purchases until next week, if you wish. You never know: you might find a better deal somewhere else.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)
Today's stars are moderately lively - and a little careless. Discretion remains an important quality. It's not only a matter of what you are prepared to say, but what other people are ready to hear. Consider partners' sensibilities before blurting out the truth!

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar 20)
Potentially excellent social trends continue for another twenty-four hours, but you'll be happiest if there is a definite plan to fit into. This is very necessary for your social self-confidence. You should also keep some extra cash handy for those unexpected costs.

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE

THE Directorate of Enforcement (ED) has carried out search operations at five premises of online payment gateways in Bengaluru over alleged irregularities in instant app-based loans, allegedly controlled by some Chinese persons and entities. During the searches, the ED seized Rs 78 crore in merchant IDs and bank accounts of these entities under the provisions of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA), the Central agency said in an official release on Friday. "The premises of Razorpay Pvt Ltd and the bank's compliance offices related to these entities were covered in the search operation, the ED added.

The ED searches on October 19 were based on the 18 FIRs registered by the Cyber Crime police station, Bengaluru City, against numerous entities/persons for their alleged involvement in extortion and harassment of people, who had availed petty loans through mobile apps run by the accused.

"During investigation, it has emerged that these entities are controlled/operated by Chinese nationals. The modus operandi of these entities includes using of forged documents of some vulnerable Indians, making them their dummy directors and generating proceeds of crime," the ED stated. "It has come to notice (of the ED) that the said entities were doing suspected illegal business through various merchant IDs/accounts held with payment gateways/banks. Based on the investigation conducted and inputs received from the Central Crime Branch (CCB), Bengaluru city, the search operations were carried out," the Central agency added. "During the searches, it was noticed that the entities were generating proceeds of crime through various merchant IDs/accounts held with payment gateways/banks and have submitted fake addresses in KYC documents," the ED stated.

The agency seized Rs 78 crore in merchant IDs and bank accounts of these Chinese persons-controlled entities. The total seizure in this case is Rs 95 crore, added the agency.

'Blocked suspicious entities'

RazorPay, in response to the ED searches, said that "as part of the ongoing investigation against a few suspicious entities, who conducted illegal business through multiple payment gateways/banks, we have proactively blocked all those suspicious entities and funds associated with them about one-and-a-half-years ago, and we have shared their details with ED multiple times".

The RazorPay spokesperson added that "being a regulated financial institution, we routinely cooperate with law enforcement agencies and provide necessary merchant information to assist in the investigation process. No funds of Razorpay were frozen as part of these visits. We would like to reiterate that all our operations and onboarding processes adhere to the highest standards of governance & regulatory guidelines."

Cops must be alert to tackle terror acts: CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai said the police department should always be alert to tackle terrorism, as divisive forces are at play in all sectors of society.

Taking part in Police Commemoration Day on Friday, Bommai said divisive forces have crept into all fields, and both national and international destructive forces are trying to disturb peace in society. "All policemen, including constables, should be aware of this and fight terrorism," he said.

He also stressed that there should be no scope for corruption in the appointment of police personnel. "Karnataka is ahead of other states in providing facilities to the police. The recruitment rate is high compared to other states, with the appointment of 4,000-5,000 police personnel every year. The confidence of the police force must rise, and appointments must take place without corruption," Bommai said, adding that introduction of new technology and cyber crimes must be part of the police training curriculum.

Further, he said there is a need for training police inspectors and DySPs, and there are plans to set up a separate command for the same. "In the next one year, all police stations must have their own buildings, and the government will ensure it. Besides, the government has plans to bring several reforms to the department, including establishing a police museum to tell people about the sacrifices and achievements of the people," the CM added.

Home Minister Araga Jnanendra, Chief Secretary Vandita Sharma, Additional Chief Secretary (Home department) Rajneesh Goel, DG & IGP Praveen Sood and others were present.

Armed miscreants rob three women of chains

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Bengaluru

TWO chain-snatching incidents and a robbery were reported within a span of 50 minutes in the jurisdiction of Indiranagar and Ramamurthy Nagar police stations, on Thursday night. Police suspect the same gang is involved in all three cases.

An armed robbery and chain-snatching took place in Indiranagar, while another chain-snatching was reported in Ramamurthy Nagar. In the first incident, Sameena Kauser (55) was robbed of her gold valuables at 8.42pm on Indiranagar 7th Cross. Kauser told TNIE that she went to her brother's house to visit her mother. "As I went to the first floor and waited after ringing the doorbell, a man aged 25-27 years wearing a mask threatened me with a long (sword). He had followed me from the gate but I was unaware. He asked me not to scream or he would kill me, and demanded that I give my gold jewels. I froze, and gave my gold chain and ring," she said.

Kauser said the miscreant escaped with the valuables and hopped on to a scooter waiting outside. The two men had followed Kauser on the scooter.

> The area (Indiranagar) is known as a posh locality, and serving and retired bureaucrats live here. If the situation is so scary here, what about other areas in the city?
> Hariprasad, a resident of Indiranagar

At 9.20pm, the miscreants struck Lakshmidevi, a 65-year-old woman who was strolling outside her residence on Indiranagar 6th Cross. Armed with a sword, they tried to snatch her gold mangalsutra, and when she resisted, they snatched the 50-gram chain before pushing her and speeding away. She sustained bruises on her neck.

In Ramamurthy Nagar, around 8.45pm, miscreants snatched a 35-gram gold chain from Balagowri (33), who was in standing in front of her house, feeding her toddler.

While police suspect the same gang to be behind these incidents, Lakshmidevi's son Hariprasad said police must step up patrolling in Indiranagar. "The area is known as a posh locality, and serving and retired bureaucrats live here. If the situation is so scary here, what about other areas in the city? Police must increase patrolling, especially during early mornings and late evenings."

Another resident alleged that this is not the first such crime here. "Whenever such incidents happen, police show up and patrol the area for a week or so, then they just stop."

Experts Speak: What the Media Gets Wrong About Plastic Surgeries

Dr Pinky Devi Ayyappan
Cosmetic and Plastic Surgeon
MS (General Surgery), MCh (Plastic Surgery)
Director – Pink Apple Aesthetics

Our interaction with the virtual world is affecting us in ways we're only beginning to understand. This leads to the conception of several myths and false beliefs; and the field of Plastic surgery isn't a stranger to these misconceptions.

However, here's the truth: While plastic surgery might affect the way you look, appearance is a very small aspect of Plastic Surgery. Keeping that in mind, we are shedding some light on things that the media gets wrong about Plastic Surgery -

#1 Plastic surgery is only about beautification and vanity:
While people could opt for plastic surgery for altering their appearance, it need not always be about beautifying your appearance.
Most surgeons perform surgeries to fix birth defects such as cleft lips or breasts reconstructions after breast cancer treatment. Plastic surgeries are about both: reconstruction and transformation.

#2 Only the wealthy can afford plastic surgery:
Several surveys show that the majority of patients undergoing plastic surgery are middle-class individuals who use their own disposable income or flexible financing options to get a certain procedure done.

#3 ALL procedures imply a drastic makeover:
The media shows the extreme cases but in most cases the difference can't be recognised. After all, the purpose of plastic surgery is to make the alteration seem as natural as possible.

#4 Plastic surgery is the same as Cosmetic Surgery:
There have been several misleading advertisements that have used plastic surgery synonymously with cosmetic surgery. Here's the major point of distinction between them: Cosmetic surgery focuses on beauty aesthetics; whereas, plastic surgery encompasses cosmetic as well as reconstructive procedures.

#5 Plastic surgery is only for women: Be it ambitious reality TV shows, TikToks or reels - any and all content related to plastic surgery show women as the recipients of the surgery. However, in the last 20 years the number of men opting for plastic surgery has increased by 325 per cent.

#6 It is very dangerous: Both cosmetic and reconstructive surgeries are no more dangerous than any other procedures. It is important to consult a doctor and understand what the procedure entails - the risks, the pain and the benefits; and thereby its management varies patient to patient post the surgery.

The recent explosion of information has made us more aware but it is important to cross-check the information you get with professionals. Professionals can help you understand better and give apt answers to your questions. Media or not, there never was and there never will be a replacement for doctors.

If you are interested to know more about a certain procedure or a consultation, contact us to understand everything about your chosen procedure, and make sure you feel comfortable and assured before proceeding.

Remember: Plastic surgery and related cosmetic procedures are tools to make you feel good and beautiful, inside-out.

BJP to get Central leaders for polls

Dharmendra Pradhan, Smriti Irani, Fadnavis to start visiting Karnataka from November

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI
@ Bengaluru

WITH the BJP high command clear about going to the 2023 Assembly polls with Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai as the party's face, it is planning to split the state into ten divisions and give the responsibility of galvanising the party in them to national leaders from outside the state, sources said.

These leaders, who have a better understanding of the state, are expected to start their visits in November and collect the party's ground survey reports and interact with ticket hopefuls. The leaders likely to be deputed are union ministers Dharmendra Pradhan and Smriti Irani, Maharashtra deputy chief minister Devendra Fadnavis among others, a party leader said.

As BJP is facing many issues, including anti-incumbency and the ire of a section of party leaders after the death of BJP Yuva Morcha member Praveen Nettaru, uninfluenced national leaders could handle them properly, he said.

The party had applied a similar strategy in the Assembly polls in North India and has continued with it in Gujarat and Himachal Pradesh. Union minister Pralhad Joshi and BJP national general secretary CT Ravi from Karnataka are now in Gujrat tasked with such responsibilities.

The party high command, especially Prime Minister Narendra Modi and Home Minister Amit Shah, is expected to experiment with the strategy in Karnataka too.

As the party is trying to retain power in the state, the high command will look at the winnability of candidates besides their loyalty and chances of those joining from other parties getting tickets cannot be ruled out, a top source said. "Leaders from other parties are ready to join BJP as they feel the high command may go to the extent of forming the government even in the case of a fractured mandate," he added.

RISE IN SC/ST RESERVATION AN ADVANTAGE

The Bommai government decided to increase reservation for SC/STs because the high command sensed that the caste equation, as earlier, could play a crucial role in the polls. Also, the government is likely to address their other demands, especially the 2A tag for the Panchamashali Lingayats, the sources said. The high command that is guiding Bommai in his every move will advise him on the quota issues too, the sources said.

BJP studies impact of Kharge's elevation

RAMAKRISHNA BADSESHI @ Kalaburagi

THOUGH the BJP state unit has commented publicly that senior Congress leader Mallikarjun Kharge's elevation as AICC president will not impact its prospects in the Assembly polls and that he will only captain a sinking boat, it has started collecting opinions from a cross-section of society on the fallout of the development in Congress.

As per the initial analysis of BJP senior leaders, Dalit votes, especially Scheduled Castes, may get consolidated and go in favour of Congress, as Kharge, a Dalit, has reached the top rung of the party. Another factor causing concern for the BJP top brass is that none of its leaders from Kalyana Karnataka have grown to the expected stature to influence voters. Mallikarjun Kharge, meanwhile, has his own legion of followers, well-wishers and admirers, as he has carried out many development works, including getting the Article 371J amended that gave a boost to the development of the region.

Kalyana Karnataka and Kittur Karnataka (Belagavi region) have long been considered the stronghold of Lingayats and Veerashaivas, even as backward classes, including Kurubas and Dalits, hold sway here.

It is an indisputable fact that Dalits consider Kharge as their leader, just like Kurubas see Siddaramaiah, Vokkaligas consider HD Deve Gowda, and Veerashivas and Lingayats look up to BS Yediyurappa as their leaders. Also, it is yet not known how Lingayats and Veerashaivas will react to Yediyurappa being removed as chief minister, the leader said.

The saffron party is also discussing whether the state party president Nalinkumar Kateel should be changed to counter the threat of consolidation of Dalit and backward c lass votes, with Kharge and Siddaramaiah assuming leadership positions in Congress.

Though BJP will not admit it, the Centre has neglected the demand for establishing a Railway Division in Kalaburagi, and weakened the Doordarshan Kendra of Kalaburagi by stopping direct relay of programmes produced here. Also, no visible development projects have been implemented in the region and these factors could work against BJP, he said.

Rahul's Bharat Jodo Yatra re-enters K'taka at Raichur

RAMAKRISHNA BADSESHI
@ Raichur

CONGRESS' Bharat Jodo Yatra led by Wayanad Member of Parliament Rahul Gandhi re-entered Karnataka here on Friday after passing through neighbouring Andhra Pradesh for three days.

Rahul was in Mantralayam of Kurnool district in AP on Thursday evening, where he took the darshan of Brindavana of Sri Raghavednra Swamy and chanted the mantra 'Pujyaya Raghavendraya'.

On Friday morning, Rahul had his breakfast in the house of Lakshmamma, a Dalit woman, at Madhavaram, a border village in Andhra Pradesh and commenced his padayatra to Raichur crossing the Tungabhadra Bridge.

Senior Congress leaders, including KPCC chief DK Shivakumar and HK Patil, received Rahul at the border. Rahul was later joined by CLP leader Siddaramaiah, KPCC working president Eshwar Khandre, media in-charge of Congress in Karnataka Priyank Kharge, KPCC vice-president Dr Sharanaprakash Patil and others.

Thousands of people from Kalyana-Karnataka region, including Bidar, Kalaburagi, Yadgir and Raichur districts, joined the yatra.

Farmers pour out their woes to Rahul

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Raichur

ON Day 44 of the Bharat Jodo Yatra, Congress MP Rahul Gandhi met farmer groups from Raichur and other parts of North Karnataka at Gillesugur village near here on Friday.

Randeep Singh Surjewala, Congress Legislature Party leader Siddaramaiah, KPCC president DK Shivakumar, MLA MB Patil and Yogendra Yadav were present at the meeting. The attendees paid tributes to Late Sardar Paramjeet Singh, a key organiser of the farmers protest at Singhu Border, and who passed away on Friday in Karnal, Haryana. Singh was part of the yatra for two weeks in Kerala and Karnataka.

Chamraj Malipatil, a farmer leader, demanded that a law be brought to ban the sale of agricultural produce below the MSP. The government neither procures adequate quantity nor purchases on time, forcing farmers to sell their produce in the free market at prices lower than their input costs and much below MSP, he added. He said the Tungabhadra dam is covered with silt up to 33 per cent of its capacity, and the government should explore ways to desilt the dam.

Prabhakar Patil, another farmer leader, said farming is becoming difficult because of rising input costs. To a query by Rahul on the efficacy of insurance in case of crop failure, farmers said private insurance companies are colluding with government officials to reduce or delay payouts.

When Rahul asked what was their net profit in the past 10 years, farmers replied that they are barely breaking even.

He said Congress had proposed a scheme called NYAY in its 2019 election manifesto that guaranteed an annual transfer of Rs 72,000 for every poor family. If extended to farmers, it can create a support system for them, he added.

'PayCM': HC quashes cases against two Cong workers

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE Karnataka High Court quashed criminal proceedings initiated against two Congress leaders, who are advocates, for allegedly instructing a few persons over phone to paste 'PayCM' posters in Nelamangala town, saying that the allegations will not attract any punishment under the Prevention of Damage to Public Property Act and Karnataka Open Place Disfigurement Act. Justice M Nagaprasanna passed the order while allowing the petition filed by JS Narayana Gowda, president, Indian Youth Congress unit of Nelamangala Assembly constituency and V Ramakrishna, president, Congress Legal Cell, Nelamangala Assembly constituency, questioning the proceedings initiated against them under the provisions of the aforementioned Acts and IPC.

The court noted that the allegation against the petitioners would not attract the provisions of the Prevention of Damage to Public Property Act. Also provisions of the Karnataka Open Place Disfigurement Act also cannot be laid against them as the allegation against the petitioners admittedly is that they have telephonically instructed the accused to lay the posters, said the court.

Kempegowda statue will inspire state to greater heights: CM

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CHIEF Minister Basavaraj Bommai on Friday said Nadaprabhu Kempegowda's statue, billed as the 'Statue of Prosperity', will be an inspiration for the overall development of Karnataka.

Speaking after flagging off the sacred soil collection campaign across the state, the CM said Kempegowda was a great visionary. Sacred soil collected from across the state will be used during the unveiling of the 108-ft statue of Kempegowda at BIA by Prime Minister Narendra Modi on November 11.

The Chief Minister said Kempegowda laid the foundation for the city of Bengaluru, and also gave prominence to social justice. The statue has been aptly named 'Statue of Prosperity', and symbolises the aspiration of the government that the city of Bengaluru should grow to greatest heights, the CM said.

Dr CN Ashwath Narayan, IT/BT and Higher Education Minister and Vice-Chairperson of Kempegowda Heritage Area Development Authority, said usage of soil from across the state for the development of Kempegowda theme park symbolises the unity of the state.

'Call session to pass quota bill'

RAICHUR: Instead of issuing an ordinance to increase the reservation for SC/STs, the government should convene a two-day legislature session to pass the Bill, suggested Congress Legislature Party leader Siddaramaiah at Gillesugur village of Raichur district on Friday. Congress will support the Bill and once passed, CM Bommai can go to Delhi to get the approval from the Centre. "The CM should do this instead of proffering excuses," he added. Denying Bommai's charges that Congress is against the increase in reservation, he said it was during the Congress-JDS coalition government that the Nagamohan Das committee was constituted to look into the quota issue. After the committee submitted the report to then CM BS Yeddyurappa, Congress members staged a dharna inside the House demanding its implementation, he said. ENS

Panchamasalis to protest outside Soudha on Dec 12

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

AT a mega-convention of Panchamasalis held in Hukkeri on Friday, it was resolved that a mammoth rally of 25 lakh people will protest outside Vidhana Soudha on December 12 to press for their demand to be included in the 2A reservation category.

Addressing the gathering, Basavajaya Mrityunjaya Swamy of Kudalasangama announced that the ongoing movement for reservation to Panchamsalis would soon reach its logical end.

Congress MLA Laxmi Hebbalkar addresses the Panchamasali convention at Hukkeri on Friday

"The Panchamasali community constitutes a majority 82 per cent of the Lingayat population. Yet it has been deprived of opportunities to get power. That is because the people of the community are kind hearted," he said.

The seer said he has never demanded anything ever since he became the Peetadhyaksha of Kudalasangama, but would now give a call to Panchamasalis to join the struggle.

The government should grant 2A reservation to the community on par with SC/STs, he said, adding that Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai should take a decision before the state Assembly elections are announced.

"The BJP rules at both the Centre and state which should make it easier for it to announce the reservation," he said.

Several leaders, cutting across party lines, took part in the convention. The seer asked Dharwad MLA Aravind Bellad to put pressure on the government to help expedite the process of getting reservation for the community.

Belagavi MLA Laxmi Hebbalkar also spoke on the occasion.

Sawant pokes Bommai on bad roads to Goa

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Belagavi

EVEN as the condition of roads across Karnataka has turned from bad to worse, the state government, which blames it on heavy rain this year, is yet to take up the repair work. The pock-marked stretches got the attention of Goa Chief Minister Pramod Sawant, who said the roads from Karnataka that connect his state are in an unmotorable condition.

Sawant said he took up the issue of repairing the roads with Karnataka Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai. "Roads in Goa are good till the border, but once you enter Karnataka, they are unusable. For commuters, travelling on the road between Goa and Belagavi is a nightmare," he said.

Sources said the Goa government may not go ahead with its plans of running electric buses to Karnataka if the condition of the roads continues to be pathetic.

Goa MLA Ulhas Tuemkar, who is the chairman of Kadamba Transport Corporation

(KTC) -- which is the Goa state transport undertaking, said that introducing electric buses on the route will be considered only after the corporation receives another lot of 150 electric buses by December. The corporation will also have to think of setting up charging stations in Belagavi before introducing e-buses, he added.

Sawant said that once the roads on the Karnataka side are repaired, the Centre is expected to take up four-laning of the road from Belagavi to Goa via Chorla Ghat.

Although several routes are available to reach Panaji from Belagavi, the state highway via Chorla Ghat is the shortest between the two cities.

CONGRESS DIDN'T GIVE SEATS TO KURUBAS: COMMUNITY LEADERS

ENS @ Tumakuru

HAS the Kuruba community been ignored by the Congress in Tumakuru after their leader Siddaramaiah joined the party? "Yes," say community leaders. "The Congress used to give tickets to community members, but for three consecutive Assembly polls, none of the community members were considered for any of the 11 Assembly constituencies in the district," a party senior leader said.

He alleged that community leaders, including former MLA Lakappa, Kuruba Association leaders Bylappa, Suresh and others, were not given tickets for the polls. At a recent joint press conference, they alleged that senior leaders, including Dr G Parameshwara, TB Jayachandra and KN Rajanna, have not shown any interest in helping Kurubas develop a new generation of leaders. "If it continues, the party has to face the wrath of the community in Sira, Tiptur and Chikkanayakanahalli Assembly segments, where it has a sizeable population," they warned, adding that community members were not even considered for organisational posts. "We brought up the issue before KPCC president DK Shivakumar," said Kanaka Yuva Sene leader Kemparaju.

Navy's warning shot injures fisherman

M S THANARAJ @ Madurai

A 32-year-old fisherman from Mayiladuthurai was injured after Indian Navy fired "warning shots" on his boat in mid-sea near Kodiyakarai on Friday. TN Chief Minister MK Stalin, who announced a solatium of ₹2 lakh, urged PM Narendra Modi to direct security agencies to exercise extreme caution and restraint while dealing with Indian fishermen in Indian waters. The Navy has ordered a probe into the incident.

Veeravel, who was airlifted by a naval chopper, was first rushed to Ramanathapuram GH for treatment. He was later taken to Madurai GH for specialized care. According to sources, he is stable.

The Navy said its ship intercepted a suspicious boat on the Palk Bay. As the vessel did not stop despite repeated calls, warning shots were fired as per SOP to halt it, a Defence PRO tweet said. According to sources, Veeravel of Vanagiri village in Mayiladuthurai district and nine others from Mayiladuthurai and Karaikal set out for sea on October 15.

On Friday, when they were fishing near Kodiyakarai, Indian Navy fired on their boat multiple times and Veeravel sustained injuries to his leg and stomach. ENS @ Bengaluru

NINE persons, including a woman, were arrested by High Grounds police for alleged trespassing and demolishing the compound of Kamala Bai School on Queen's Road, while the case over ownership of the property is still pending before a court. The advocate representing the accused has written to the Chief Justice of Karnataka and police commissioner, accusing them of intervening in a civil dispute.

Police said there is a dispute over a three-acre plot on the premises of the school, and the court had recently passed a temporary injunction. However, a gang demolished compound wall of the school on Thursday night. They allegedly assaulted some members of Kamala Bai Education Trust who tried to stop them. An FIR was registered earlier too.

However, Samad Khan, the advocate, submitted a petition to the Chief Justice and police commissioner, seeking action against the police.

Lab equipment worth ₹40L damaged, says college

"THE government had sanctioned Rs 2 crore for renovation. The bhoomi puja was scheduled on Saturday," the principal said.

The management has declared a two-day holiday. However, the students will resume their classes in the new building which has 25 rooms. A chemistry lecturer told TNIE that she, along with three other staff members, were in the lab in the morning but after noticing plaster falling from the ceiling, they left the room. The college, built by the Wadiyars, has 3,850 students, 350 faculty members, 50 staff, 30 UG and PG departments. College authorities claim that laboratory equipment worth ₹40 lakh was crushed under the debris.

Historian and Heritage Committee member Echanuru Kumar told TNIE that the committee conducted an inspection of the Maharani's College in 2017 and recommended urgent repair and renovation work. Maharani College staff said there is seepage in botany, microbiology, computer science and zoology and most of the laboratories.

Tracing the history of the college, Kumar said the college was constructed by Wadiyars. Among the illustrious personalities who have visited the college are Rabindranath Tagore who addressed the students in 1919, and Sarojini Naidu.

Mahatma Gandhi's daughter-in-law Saraswathi Gandhi is an alumnus of the college.

TRAI CONCERN OVER POWER DILUTION IN REFORMS DRAFT

The proposed Indian Telecommunication Bill, 2022 was to bring a step change in the sector, but the first draft evoked a sense of unease. Telecom is the most regulated industry, and its laws are as old as the hills dating back to 1885. Reforming the sector is a challenge. The draft bill rightly attempts to replace all the three existing legislations, namely, Indian Telegraph Act, 1885, the Wireless Telegraphy Act, 1933, and the Telegraph Wires (Unlawful Possession) Act, 1950. However, it inadvertently seems to have given overriding powers to the Department of Telecommunications, weakening the Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI) instead of giving it more teeth. Besides, concerns were also raised over licences and services, prompting Union Communications Minister Ashwini Vaishnaw to step in and reaffirm the government's intent favouring only a light-touch regulation.

The draft bill draws extensively from unified telecom legislations like the UK, Australia and Singapore and jurisdictions like Japan and the US, which have somewhat sporadic laws. Still, in the process, it created complications in some crucial aspects. For one, over-the-top services (OTT) providers are left baffled as a licensing regime will apply even to software platforms operating using internet bandwidth, ranging from calling and messaging applications to software updates. According to law firm Cyril Amarchand Mangaldas, several SMEs provide OTT services that operate using networks provided by licensed entities. There's little benefit in creating an overlapping licensing regime. The cost of compliance may well make these businesses unviable. While some form of regulation is acceptable, licensing for software and platforms is unusual, and no country has such a system. The proposal needs an essential relook.

The stated intent of liberalising the sector and reducing procedural delays is commendable. Policy watchers, however, are not specifically enthused about the proposed 'right of way' for networks and infrastructure, given the wide-ranging delays, penalties and litigation with local public works departments and municipalities. The bill needs to put more meat on the bones. That said, deferrals and exemptions for distressed entities or insolvency or inability to honour license payments for extraordinary reasons provide relief and could encourage telcos to invest. In sum, the bill is a timely intervention but needs improvisation to reduce the administrative and compliance burden of all stakeholders.

SC PAVES WAY TO REVISIT POCSO ACT

In a historical judgment with potentially far-reaching consequences, the Supreme Court recently made it clear that all women—married or unmarried—are entitled to safe abortions under the Medical Termination of Pregnancy Act. First, the judgment acknowledges that persons who do not identify as cis-gender women also require and seek abortion services. Although it uses the word 'woman' to include persons who may be transgender or have any other gender identity, the judgment at least records the spectrum of gender experiences and the needs that diverse groups of people have. Second, the SC has said that marital rape is to be seen as rape for the purposes of the MTP Act, even as the exception to marital rape under Section 375 of the IPC is being considered by another bench. Third, the court points out that regardless of minors being unable to consent to sexual activity as per the POCSO Act, minors are indeed having consensual sex and the Act's clause that makes it mandatory for authorities to report said sexual activity to police should not become a barrier for a child to access safe abortion services. To this end, the court says POCSO and the MTP Act should be read harmoniously, and healthcare providers, with the consent of the child and guardian, need not report the matter and may be protected from prosecution.

This last intervention comes in the 10th year of the POCSO Act. The law has many progressive features, including that it is gender-neutral. However, in practice, it has too often come to be used against minors or youngsters close in age having consensual sex. Activists have called for a more nuanced treatment of such relationships, and the verdict surely lays the groundwork towards amending it following suitable discussion. Similarly, while well-intentioned and necessary when children are assaulted by their guardians and families, the mandatory reporting clause does act as a barrier to accessing vital healthcare, as acknowledged by the SC. This must be revisited in a nuanced way—children must be protected, but the very means of protection must not cause harm by denial of healthcare services.

Finally, its impact will be limited as historic as the SC judgement may be unless its strictures trickle down to service providers. The judgment must be included in training material for doctors, healthcare providers and all other stakeholders.

QUICK TAKE

VOTING IS VOLUNTARY

An Election Commission exercise to encourage more people to vote in Gujarat sparks off a row. Some corporate houses signed agreements with the Commission to publicly identify staff who take leave on election day but don't vote. It raises questions about coercion. The Representation of the People Act, 1951 defines an electoral right as the right to vote or refrain from voting at an election. A citizen can be encouraged to vote but not forced. The Supreme Court also held abstention from voting is protected as freedom of expression. And publicly naming non-voters raises a debate around privacy and arm-twisting.

For Xi, the threat to the Communist Party of China is not democracy as believed in the West but hidden capital

XI JINPING'S VISION AND THE 20th PARTY CONGRESS

M S PRATHIBHA

Associate Fellow at Manohar Parrikar Institute for Defence Studies and Analyses

SOUMYADIP SINHA

The 20th Party Congress of the Communist Party of China has brought the world's attention to whether Xi Jinping's third term in power is the last straw that can break the camel's back from becoming a fully developed country. The commonly held narratives show Xi beset with a slowing economy exacerbated by Covid shutdowns, investor confidence shot down by the crackdown on fintech sectors and severe supply chain disruptions owing to the rising US-China competition, leaving him in a precarious leadership position.

These narratives, however, portray that Xi's rule is resilient as he centralised power, decimating his political rivals. It is only a matter of time before his many failures would disrupt elite cohesion and derail China's ascendancy. Such narratives are easy to digest due to their brevity. That Xi is a product of an authoritarian communist system and is unable to face his ineptitude on policy implementation punishes more dissenters. It does not lead to an understanding of how the Party deals with resistance and implements reforms, as seen in the 20th Party Congress.

It is well known now that Xi came to power to reorient China's economic model towards high-end manufacturing and rein in excess capacity. Deng Xiaoping, the leader who was credited with instituting the consensus mechanism, did not base it on a set of ideals. Deng's consensus system worked as he allowed the party officials to profiteer from the proceeds of the market reforms. He condoned it to garner their support for pushing the provinces to implement reforms in return. As a result, by the end of Hu Jintao's tenure, massive corruption at every level of government threatened the Party's hold on power.

But Xi's compulsions go beyond a few corrupt officials. Deng's excesses, which once boosted China's economy, became an albatross around its neck, stifling innovation in high-tech manufacturing. Xi's anti-corruption campaign thwarted consensus politics because it was the thread that held various interest groups and in turn, the factions and their power-sharing arrangements together through spoils of corruption.

New engines of future growth are needed to replace it. In Xi's view, the answer lies in core technologies, which require the upgradation of the manufacturing sector and promotion of emerging industries to produce high-quality goods. Xi's first decade in power has led China to considerable momentum, with the 20th Party Congress stressing on innovation, self-reliance and industrial competitiveness. Naturally, it has created concerns for the US about sustaining its technological dominance. Further, the US attempts to stall China's innovation through wide-ranging technology-denying legal mechanisms.

However, Xi's dreams of technological superiority do not focus on upending the liberal order built by the West but nevertheless would have profound implications for it. Xi wants to change the lifeline of the Chinese economic system, which got rich by participating in the economic system built by the West but nonetheless engaged in economic activity that benefits the Western populace, such as Chinese labour making cheaper goods for the European customer. Xi's motive is to change the production cycle of its industries to turn to the domestic consumer, which would mean he has to reorient the way capital is used for economic growth.

For Xi, the threat to the Party is not democracy as believed in the West but hidden capital. The hidden and uncontrolled expansion of capital as the by-product of the neo-liberal order is posing challenges. The expansion of such capital grows through the shared interests in seeking profits, and as it grows, it becomes autonomous in its search for connecting powerful individuals and setting up cross-national networks. It threatens state power and, in Xi's view, is often untethered from the trappings of tradition, culture, the spiritual and the political, and can unravel the very nature of the community.

Xi is apprehensive that unchecked growth would jeopardise the CPC's hold on society and can make the Party accountable to a group of powerful individuals or organisations. His political survival also depends on making sure that powerful political families in China, who benefit from such arrangements, do not gain undue advantage to loosen his grip on power.

The question for Xi is whether he can reorient the flow of capital through crackdowns on tech, entertainment, and education, which have been helpful in GDP expansion.

Shutting down the valve of easy credit to companies to expand in unproductive sectors and arresting the further expansion of capital in sectors that are seeking profit from the manipulation of their customers is easier said than done. For instance, if a Chinese parent believes that extra tuition is necessary for the child to compete for college admission successfully, does the state prioritise reducing the undue pressure on children from the parents or the GDP expansion that this additional economic activity creates? Xi's 20th Party Congress compromises on the GDP growth story to ensure social stability.

This is why common prosperity is so important for Xi Jinping. Many of the Chinese ills can be subsumed into this concept without drawing it out in the open such as elders' suicide, rising costs of healthcare, growing pressure on the youth who are unable to have a decent livelihood, loneliness, and growing spiritual despair among the young and old due to the brutal work culture and urban migration of the young respectively.

The nature of reform that Xi is pursuing is to raise the incomes of individual households, especially low-income earners, and increase the size of the middle-income group. This has its naysayers.

Liberals who believe that a democratic system can fairly redistribute wealth, and the rationalists in the Party who believe that crackdowns would only hurt the economy rather than help it, are concerned about Xi's policies.

Xi will be under tremendous pressure to raise China's productivity and deliver on technological advancements and self-reliant innovation amid complex geopolitical competition with the US.

The next decade, if Xi stays in power, would be consequential for India. For instance, India is formulating its policies as an alternative choice in the battle for a resilient supply chain and disruptions caused by Xi's zero-Covid policies. The question is not whether Xi is another Mao Zedong or Deng Xiaoping, but how far his policies, such as zero-Covid, might help him transition the Chinese economy towards high-end manufacturing. Similarly, it might help India reframe its policies to make its industries and manufacturing globally competitive to help achieve its goal of a $5 trillion economy.

THREE Cs IN INDIA-AUSTRALIA TIES

HINDOL SENGUPTA

Chief Economic Research Officer at Invest India, national investment promotion agency of GOI

Indian foreign minister S Jaishankar completed his second visit to Australia a few days ago this year. By all counts, it was a successful visit, a chance to reaffirm ties with a major Indo-Pacific democracy with which India has agreed on a historic trade deal, the Economic Cooperation and Trade Agreement (ECTA).

The resilience of the India-Australia partnership has been underlined in the recent past because the two partners took significantly varying points of view on the war in Ukraine but accommodated a respectful position of understanding.

Jaishankar said during the visit that the bilateral relationship between the two countries, which are also part of the four-member Indo-Pacific grouping, the Quad, and the US and Japan, is based on three Cs—Covid, conflict, and climate change. This is a take-off from the old three Cs of India-Australia cooperation which were said to be curry, cricket, and commerce. While commerce and trade remain a vital link between the two countries—as do cricket and curry—the Indian foreign minister was making an important point about the deep strategic outlook and turn that relations between the two countries have taken in recent years.

India and Australia cooperated closely during the pandemic, with Australia recognising both the Covishield vaccine manufactured in India and India's indigenous vaccine Covaxin. The two countries have worked to strengthen trade ties in a post-pandemic world. The ECTA deal provides supply chain support in critical minerals from Australia to India, even as it opens greater opportunities for Indian medicines and pharmaceutical products to go to the Australian market.

Australia has reserves of at least 21 of the 49 critical minerals identified by India (many of these are necessary for the growth and development of India's important digital economy) and can play an integral role in strengthening India's supply chains. Australia can potentially be one of the top suppliers of cobalt and zircon to India, being in the top three for the global production of these minerals. Australia also has reserves to supply many other critical minerals to India, including antimony, lithium, rare earth elements and tantalum.

On conflict, India and Australia elevated their relationship to a Comprehensive Strategic Partnership, thereby agreeing to deepen and broaden the scope and complexity of the military exercises they jointly participate in, and "increase military interoperability through defence exercises through their arrangement concerning Mutual Logistics Support (MLSA)". Since 2014, defence-related engagement between the two countries has increased around four-fold.

It is noteworthy that India worked to ensure that a Chinese resolution at the International Atomic Energy Agency (IAEA) against the Australia, United Kingdom, and the United States (AUKUS) grouping providing nuclear-powered submarines to Australia was stopped. India's diplomatic channels ensured support against the resolution from many smaller countries, forcing the Chinese side to withdraw from the resolution.

> Jaishankar said the bilateral relationship is based on 3Cs: Covid, conflict, and climate change. This is a take-off from the old 3Cs of curry, cricket, and commerce

Apart from the prominent Malabar naval exercises, the two countries have participated in 10 bilateral and 17 multilateral exercises involving their armed forces. After the recent election, India was one of the first countries visited by Australia's new Deputy Prime Minister and Defence Minister Richard Marles. In contrast, Indian Foreign Minister S Jaishankar has already visited Australia twice this year.

This defence and military engagement is critical because the two countries are aligning their vision and resources in promoting a democratic Indian Ocean region and Indo-Pacific, i.e., their collaboration is aimed at ensuring that there is significant pushback on Chinese revisionism in the region at a bilateral level, above and beyond the cooperation between the partners of the Quad.

On climate change, the two countries signed a Letter of Intent on new and renewable energy technology earlier this year which is aimed at focusing on a wide range of projects, including the manufacture and deployment of ultra-low-cost solar and clean hydrogen energy projects.

This adds to a new age of cooperation between India and Australia. There is a deep recognition that the two countries have much to offer to one another and are, in a sense, responsible for keeping the Indo-Pacific free from authoritarian influences and democratic as India completes its nuclear triad with the successful ballistic missile testing from the INS Arihant, its nuclear-powered submarine, and the acquisition of nuclear-powered submarines by Australia in the coming years.

There is also increasing investment in the next generation of people-to-people contact between Australia and India. The Australia-India Youth Dialogue is a notable success as one of the best-known 'under-40' dialogues between young leaders in the democratic world. It is certainly one of the best such programmes between India and a major economy. More achievements are sure to come in this area as Australia has launched the $11 million Maitri Scholarships scheme which is in line with Britain's Chevening Scholarships and the Fulbright programme of America. This will create new generations of fine young scholars who would get an opportunity to be trained in Australia and thus build deeper ties between the two countries.

If it continues to grow at this scorching pace, the India-Australia relationship is set to become one of the most important diplomatic engagements for both countries. There is scope, vision, and, importantly, bipartisan agreement in both countries about the importance of this relationship. Jaishankar has underlined Prime Minister Narendra Modi's vision of a safe and secure Indian Ocean and highlighted that the partnership with Australia would be key in ensuring the implementation of this vision.

Truss not loser

Apropos of Terrible Truss tenure terminated (Oct 21). The sudden resignation of Liz Truss has greatly shocked the public. However, her resignation doesn't show her as a failure; rather, it shows her brave attitude to step down after becoming prime minister to pave the way for someone who has the ability to end the UK's problem. If Sunak leads, it will benefit India.

UK needs zealous PM

Apropos of Terrible Truss tenure terminated (Oct 21). The motivation behind Liz Truss' resignation is rather illogical. She may have made numerous promises to help people, but nothing has happened so far. The incoming PM ought to stand up for the people.

Custodial torture

Apropos of Custodial torture of two brothers: 4 cops suspended (Oct 21). The alleged custodial torture of Vishnu, a soldier, and his brother Vignesh, is among a string of recent incidents that show the gaps in the integrity of the police force. The state police need to improve their image.

Veena doing well

Apropos of 5000 children undergo free heart surgeries in Kerala (Oct 21). Veena George is doing well. I really appreciate her hard work to save children with heart diseases through the Hridyam programme. She did well even in tackling other diseases like monkeypox. Hopefully, she keeps up this spirit!

Report belongs in garbage

Apropos of Slanted report on Jaya's death does little for justice (Oct 21). The editorial has rightly opined that there was a predetermined conclusion. The Stalin government should rise above petty politics and close the issue related to former CM J Jayalalithaa's death by sending the report to the garbage heap of history.

Governor must turn new leaf

Apropos of Governor's actions must fit his stature (Oct 21). I couldn't agree more with the editorial when it says that the governor engaging in a war of words with the CM on a daily basis is not appropriate. With his frequent causticity, Arif Mohammad Khan has brought his political bias to the forefront. It is high time he stopped this and upheld the dignity of his office.

Modi hits out at Oppn for ignoring country's culture

Says people linked to foreign culture despise development of places of faith

NARENDRA SETHI @ Mana (Chamoli)

PRIME Minister Narendra Modi on Friday sought to target the Opposition saying "people trapped in the mentality of slavery neglected the country's culture and traditions."

He blamed the opposition parties for the hurdles in the way of Somnath temple's rejuvenation and the construction of Ram temple.

"People associated with foreign culture despise the development of places of faith. They work to spread hatred and disbelief towards the heritage of the country. Their wrong attitude destroyed places of faith for decades," said the PM.

Modi said travelling to religious places in the country became difficult due to the neglect of the previous governments, and blamed them for being unable to preserve the country's ancient heritage and culture.

Dressed in Himachali attire at Kedarnath, Modi also gave an indirect political message to the voters of poll-bound Himachal Pradesh, where the BJP is determined to return to power in the backdrop of the fact that no government in the state has served two consecutive terms.

The PM is on a visit to Badri-Kedar. He urged devotees and tourists to buy local products. He also tried to send an election message by referring to the commonality of Himachal and Uttarakhand. "Today Kashi Vishwanath, Ayodhya, Ujjain, Badri Kedar and Hemkund are being rejuvenated. Tourists and pilgrims are visiting Mana Pass and Malari besides Badri Kedar and Hemkund," he said.

Modi said many party leaders were upset when he decided to form the BJP's state working committee in Mana-Badrinath about 25 years ago. "It was at that time that I had explained to them the strength of the soil of Mana village," he said.

Terrorism a threat to human rights: Shah

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

UNION Home Minister Amit Shah on Friday said that the commitment to fight terrorism together, and narratives such as good terrorism, bad terrorism and small and big attacks, do not go together.

Shah said there is no good terrorism and bad terrorism and it remains the biggest threat to human rights. "We cannot consider this a political problem. We must be committed to ensuring that an effective fight against terrorism should be long term, comprehensive and sustainable," he asserted.

Addressing the valedictory ceremony of the 90th Annual Interpol Assembly, being attended by delegates from 195 countries, Shah said that nations across the globe need to achieve a consensus on the cross-border propagation of terrorist ideologies through online radicalisation.

Stating that 'terrorism is the biggest violation of human rights,' he said that it's time that countries agree on the definition of terrorism and terrorist. Highlighting the changing trends in the commission of crime world over, Shah said that "crime has become borderless," and therefore countries must "think beyond conventional geographic borders."

He added, "Given that criminal syndicates are using modern technology to collude at an international level, I see no reason why countries should not have cooperation and coordination between themselves."

Shah said that under the existing condition, there is a "dual challenge of sorts" for the law enforcement agencies. "On one hand, law has to be enforced within the confines of the sovereignty of nations, and on the other, we have to understand the global nature of crime, detect criminals and worry about justice as well," he lamented.

"In the midst of these challenges, to make the work of security agencies easier, the role of Interpol is important and will become even more important in the future," Shah said, adding "Given this situation, in order to fight terrorism, we will have to bring together all the counter-terrorism agencies of the world."

Shah said that to tackle the new-age crime, the Indian government has taken several new initiatives, such as establishing the National Forensic Science University, and linking the e-courts, e-prisons, e-forensics and e-prosecution to Crime and Criminal Tracking Network and systems.

Stating that India is committed to working with Interpol, Shah said, "The Indian government has decided to create a national database on crimes such as terrorism, narcotics and economic offences, and has established the Indian Cyber Crime Coordination Center, I4C, to combat cyber-crime in a comprehensive manner."

Shah also appealed to the Interpol "to launch an initiative to set up a permanent mechanism for a real time information exchange line between counter-terror agencies of all member countries."

Row over Patil's remark on Gita & Quran, Cong says 'not acceptable'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

THE Congress on Friday distanced itself from the controversial remarks made by senior party leader and former Union minister Shivraj Patil that Lord Krishna gave lessons on jihad to Arjuna during the Mahabharata war.

Speaking at the launch of Congress leader Mohsina Kidwai's biography on Thursday, Patil said, "It is said that there's a lot of discussion on jihad in Islam. Even after all the efforts, if someone doesn't understand the clean idea, power can be used. It is mentioned in the Quran and Bhagavad Gita," he had said.

However, the BJP picked up the issue to target the Congress. BJP national spokesperson Prem Shukla said the Congress has long been involved in the conspiracy to "insult Hindu, Hindutva and Hindustan" and Patil's remarks are another chapter towards this.

BJP spokesperson Shehzad Poonawalla on Thursday tweeted, "After AAP's Gopal Italia & Rajendra Pal, not to be outdone in Hindu hatred & vote bank politics, Congress' Shivraj Patil says Shri Krishna taught 'Jihad' to Arjun! Congress coined Hindu/saffron terror, opposed Ram Mandir, questioned Ram Ji's existence, said Hindutva=ISIS (sic)," Poonawalla tweeted.

Patil later clarified that he was simply asking a question whether a "rightful fight against the oppressor, like the fight in the Mahabharata" could be called jihad as well.

"It is you who is calling it jihad," he told the media.

The Congress responded to Patil's remarks by calling it unacceptable. Congress' communication head, Jairam Ramesh, said, "My senior colleague Shivraj Patil reportedly made some comments on the Bhagavad Gita. That's unacceptable. Subsequently, he clarified. The stand of the Congress is clear. The Bhagavad Gita is a key foundational pillar of Indian civilisation," he said. Ramesh also posted an excerpt from The Discovery of India by Jawaharlal Nehru quoting the part about the Gita.

Gandhis will be consulted before taking decisions, says Khurshid

PREETHA NAIR @ New Delhi

AS the grand old party gets a non-Gandhi chief at the helm after nearly a quarter of a century, veteran Congress leader and former Union minister Salman Khurshid asserted that the changes would not create any differences between the top leadership and the new president, and important decisions will be made in consultation with the Gandhi family.

In a high-stakes battle, 80-year-old party veteran from Karnataka, Mallikarjun Kharge, defeated Lok Sabha MP Shashi Tharoor by a huge margin. Khurshid, one of the proposers of Kharge's candidature, said that "Congress culture" is linked with the "Nehru Gandhi family" and the party will remain committed to it.

"The presidential election doesn't change the landscape in the manner in which a lot of people wanted to see a change. We wouldn't give up on the leadership," Khurshid told this newspaper in an interview.

On a question on Rahul Gandhi's role after Kharge takes charge, Khurshid said that the election was held to decide the president, not the leader of the party. Leadership issue is yet to be settled, he said.

"The functions of the party will be hugely concentrated on the president, because that's the whole idea. But that doesn't create a dichotomy, as far as leadership is concerned. I think the leadership issue is still there, and will remain there. As the president's tenure increases, I'm sure the attributes of leadership will grow. But that does not contradict the ground reality of having a top leadership. That will remain, whatever they do," he added.

While Rahul Gandhi's statement that he will follow Kharge's orders has evoked interest in many quarters, Khurshid said that important decisions will be taken in confidence and consultation.

"Rahul Gandhi said that he will do whatever Kharge wants him to do. That's the only statement that can be made. That's the way that he can give importance to Kharge, and Kharge must have importance. But whatever happens will be in confidence and in collaboration and consultation," he said.

While detractors say that Kharge, a staunch Gandhi family loyalist, will be a rubber stamp, Khurshid says that the veteran leader will be a part of the decision making.

"Why does anybody need a rubber stamp? Decisions were always taken by the top leadership and they will be so. The leadership will work out own working systems," he said.

Talking about the poll, Khurshid said, "Tharoor is not even an undisputed leader in Kerala. But he has been a promising leader among hundreds of leaders that we have. However, Kharge has reached the top in the last 50 years," he said.

While Tharoor's manifesto proposed to dismantle high command culture, Khurshid denied having any regimented high command.

"The high command culture is the sense of difference and the sense of attachment we show towards our top leaders," he said, adding that Tharoor will have a successful career within the party.

AI, IoT training in the offing: Over 30 lakh babus to get tech savvy

RAJESH KUMAR THAKUR
@ New Delhi

IN a bid to promote technology-supported effective governance on a wider scale, the Centre has planned to familiarise over 30 lakh state and central civil servants and other government officials to emerging technologies like artificial intelligence (AI), machine learning and block chain.

"The civil servants will be trained by experts in emerging technologies, like AI, Internet of Things, virtual reality, data analytics, and drone and unmanned aerial vehicles, by 2023," Union Minister of State (independent charge) for Science And Technology, Jitendra Singh, said on Friday.

Speaking at the two-day workshop on 'Emerging Technology for Good Governance,' Singh said that technical details and expertise in handling emerging technologies will be shared through the Integrated Government Online Training-Mission Karmayogi (IGOT-MK) and other methods.

"There are 25 central training institutions, 33 state-level administrative training institutions and other civil service training institutions along with capacity-building commission. With all these, Wadhawani Institute of Technology and Policy (WITP) will also join in this endeavour," Singh said, adding that AI and machine learning training helps in detecting frauds in GST and income tax returns while block chain technology ensures seamless keeping of records and certificates, and data driven decision-making through the use of analytic techniques.

"Our country's civil servants and government officials will be using these techniques in day-to-day official work, ensuring that benefits of good governance reach everyone," Singh said. He added that India's growth story under Prime Minister Narendra Modi has been driven largely by technology adoption in governance.

"Be it the use of Aadhaar for vaccine rollout, vaccine delivery through drones in difficult areas, or the Jan Dhan Mobile linked accounts, technology-driven initiatives have yielded positive results," Singh said.

SC approves NMC plea to extend last date for MBBS, PG admissions

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

The Supreme Court on Friday allowed the National Medical Commission (NMC) to extend the last date for admissions to postgraduate medical courses and MBBS courses for the academic year 2022-23 until November 25 and December 20, respectively. The extension for PG medical courses was granted to fill all-India quota seats as well as the quota seats in deemed and central universities and states.

Observing that the explanation given by the NMC is "bonafide", a bench of Justices DY Chandrachud and Hima Kohli allowed the applications.

NMC had sought modification of the time schedule since Covid-19 and restrictions by states had delayed the commencement of the last academic session. The council had added that it is not possible for the authorities to complete the admission process as per the statutory time schedule.

"Due to delay for completing the admission in MBBS courses for 2021-22, the process of admission in 2022-23 could not be commenced as per the schedule," NMC had stated. It had recently released a timeline for 2022-2023 medical admissions.

Govt broadcasting to be done only through Prasar Bharati: Ministry

PARVEZ SULTAN @ New Delhi

THE Ministry of Information and Broadcasting (I&B) on Friday declared that ministries, departments of the central government, state governments, and union territory (UT) administrations or entities related to them would not be allowed to enter into broadcasting or distribution of broadcasting activities.

An advisory issued by the ministry on Friday further stated that in case central ministries, states, UTs and entities related to them are already broadcasting their content, it would now be done through the public broadcaster — Prasar Bharati. The ministry has set December 31, 2023 as eadline to complete the exercise as per the advisory.

The ministry said that the decision had been taken according to recommendations of Telecom Regulatory Authority of India (TRAI), Supreme Court judgment and the legal opinion given by the Ministry of Law and Justice.

I&B Minister Anurag Thakur

The apex court's judgement, cited in the advisory, states that public service broadcasting should be in the hands of a statutory corporation or corporations set up under a statute. The constitution of such corporation or corporations should be such as to ensure their impartiality in political, economic, social matters and on other public issues and they should promote pluralism, diversity of opinions and views.

"As per the existing policy guidelines for setting up of community radio in India, government universities, colleges, schools, Krishi Vigyan Kendras, central / state universities, including autonomous bodies and agricultural universities are eligible for setting up of community radios," reads the advisory.

TRAI had also recommended that the government agencies and any joint ventures of the central government and the private sector should not be allowed to enter into the business of broadcasting and/or distribution of TV channels.

"Entry of central/state/UT governments into the business of broadcast for educational purposes should be done through the Prasar Bharati route... Till the engagement with Prasar Bharati gets in place, it needs to be ensured that uninterrupted viewing of ongoing education channels and other programmes is carried on smoothly," it says.

AAP faces trying times in Gujarat where Patidar leader is set to join BJP while the battle between CM & Governor hots up again in Punjab

AAP faces PAAS dropout in run-up to Guj elections

DILIP SINGH KSHATRIYA
@ Ahmedabad

THE Aam Aadmi Party is facing a far more serious setback in poll-bound Gujarat than the severance of its alliance with Bharatiya Tribal Party (BTP) in poll-bound Gujarat: the Patidar Anamat Andolan Samiti (PAAS) convener Alpesh Kathiriya is preparing to join the BJP.

The Patidars comprise an influential 14 per cent voter block that holds sway in 60 assembly constituencies in the 182-member Assembly. PAAS supported Congress in the 2017 assembly election, enabling it to win 77 seats.

The bad news for AAP comes from the Diamond City Surat that propelled the party to bag 27 seats in the city civic polls last year. Supported by the Patidars, the good showing by AAP prompted it to project itself at the centre of state politics.

The PAAS-AAP rift surfaced just after the Surat corporation results. Sources say the state AAP chief Gopal Italia invited Kathiriya to join the party after AAP's Surat victory. However, Kathiria denied any such move.

Talking with this newspaper, Kathiriya indirectly acknowledged BJP's invitation to him. "We have raised two demands: the withdrawal of police cases during the Patidar quota movement and government jobs to each of the families of those killed in the Patidar movement. We'll decide our stance once these demands are accepted," Kathiriya told this paper.

He said he has been invited by Congress, BJP, and other parties to join, but "we are firm on our two demands."

On the other hand, AAP remains beholden to PASS. "Alpesh Kathiria is our partner in struggle," said AAP spokesperson Yogesh Jadwani, adding Kathiria's support has been crucial. "I invite Kathiria to join AAP. He is aware of the BJP's 'use and throw' policy, said Jadwani.

Who is Alpesh Kathiriya?

The convener of Patidar Anamat Andolan Samiti, he has spent over 14 months in jail in a sedition case against him and other PAAS leaders in 2015. He is a very close friend of Hardik Patel, who is now in BJP. Kathiriya was associated with ABVP and was at forefront of Patidar quota stir in Surat

What is PAAS?

In July 2015, Patidar youth under the banner of the PAAS started protests across Gujarat demanding the OBC status, enabling them a quota in government jobs and education. Then led by Hardik Patel, PAAS supported the Congress in the 2017 Gujarat elections

Significance of Patidars

Around 14% of Patidars in Gujarat hold sway in 60 assembly seats. Patidar leaders claim they have significant presence in over 100 constituencies. They are a deciding factor in more than 40 assembly seats. They have a sizable presence in Saurashtra, north Gujarat and parts of Surat

No one gives me orders on V-C post, guv tells Mann

HARPREET BAJWA @ Chandigarh

THE rift between Punjab Governor Banwarilal Purohit and CM Bhagwant Mann resurfaced on Friday over the appointment of Dr Satbir Singh Gosal as Vice-Chancellor of Punjab Agricultural University (PAU) at Ludhiana.

Purohit said he would hold the Constitution, and that nobody could give him orders. "I will seek legal advice on the matter and act accordingly," he said.

The Governor said the Punjab government should learn how work should be carried out. "They (the government) should learn from me. I do not even know who is capable and who is not in Punjab. I just want to see to it that education improves. Before being appointed Punjab Governor, I was the Governor of Tamil Nadu where I was the Chancellor of 20 universities. In my tenure, I appointed 27 vice-chancellors as per law."

"I was the Tamil Nadu governor for four years. The situation was very bad there. In Tamil Nadu, a vice-chancellor's post was sold for Rs 40 to Rs 50 crore. You can ask Tamil Nadu CM MK Stalin who appreciated me for cleaning up the education system there," he said.

Purohit said that he was under oath to protect the Constitution and no one could stop him from doing that. "I feel guilty if I do not do my duty. It is the responsibility of the Governor as a chancellor to guide all and look after the universities. I will do my duty come what may," he said.

The state government has been alleging that the Governor has been given orders by someone else. Purohit said, "Nobody gives me orders, I am the senior-most. One can come to me for advice."

"The Punjab government is saying the Governor is interfering in the working of universities. The powers to take decisions vest with Governor as a chancellor. Actually, the state government cannot interfere in the matters of universities. The government sent a letter for VC's extension thrice. If the Governor has no role in such an appointment, then how can he have a role in giving extensions?" he asked.

'I cleaned up education system in Tamil Nadu'

Punjab Governor Banwarilal Purohit on Friday said that in Tamil Nadu he was chancellor of 20 universities. "In my tenure, I appointed 27 vice-chancellors as per law," said Purohit, adding "TN CM Stalin appreciated me for cleaning up the education system there." He said the Punjab govt should learn from him.

AAP doubts BJP-AIMIM meet ahead of polls

The Aam Aadmi Party has accused the BJP of having a secret deal with the All India Majlis-e-Ittehadul Muslimeen (AIMIM). In a viral photo, AIMIM Gujarat President and candidate for Jamalpur constituency Sabir Kabliwala was seen with Ahmedabad BJP Mayor Kirit Parmar. Delhi Deputy CM Manish Sisodia tweeted, 'Why the BJP leaders met the state president of AIMIM?" After PM's visit, Amit Shah will be in the state from today and will interact with the local leaders and BJP workers in 4 zones. In his earlier vists, Shah had srategised a plan for winning all 60 seats in Gujarat where BJP couldn't win earlier. Nitish's clean chit to Bihar DGP in fake phone call case

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

AMID the BJP demand for a CBI probe, Bihar Chief Minister Nitish Kumar on Friday gave a clean chit to state Director General of Police S K Singhal for absolving an IPS officer in a liquor prohibition case.

"He (the DGP) will retire in two months. He is doing good work but a lapse on his part has taken place. Some imposter had called him and the matter was revealed during an investigation," said Nitish.

The DGP is in the eye of a storm ever since it was revealed that he absolved an IPS officer of charges of dereliction of duty in a prohibition case. The former was put under pressure following an incident where a man impersonating as the chief justice of the Patna High Court wanted the DGP to clear the IPS officer of charges against him in a liquor prohibition case.

Coming in full defence of the DGP, the CM said, "When a person admits his mistake, the matter should not be dragged. I have ordered an inquiry, and the probe is underway."

In a dig at Nitish, former deputy CM and BJP MP Sushil Kumar Modi said the CM was defending DGP and that he is in the wrong to have defended the top cop in such a manner.

Mehbooba gets eviction notice for Srinagar house

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

THE Lt Governor administration in Jammu and Kashmir has asked PDP chief and former Chief Minister Mehbooba Mufti, who has been very critical of Article 370 revocation, to vacate her Fairview residence on the highly-secure Gupkar Road in Srinagar.

Official sources said an eviction notice was sent to Mehbooba on October 15 by J&K Estates Department under the Jammu and Kashmir Public Premises (Eviction of Unauthorized Occupant) Act, 1988 read with the Amendment Act 2016. Fairview has been the official residence of Mehbooba and her late father, Mufti Mohammad Sayeed when they were Chief Ministers of erstwhile J&K state.

In the erstwhile J&K state, a former Chief Minister was entitled to lifelong official accommodation. However, the law that permitted former CM to occupy official residences for life was amended by the Centre in 2020, a year after scrapping J&K's special status and bifurcating J&K state into two Union Territories.

The PDP chief has confirmed receiving the notice and said she was considering legal options to challenge it.

The Fairview was used as an official guest house and known as Fairview Guest House till 1989. However, after the outbreak of militancy, it was taken over by BSF and it was turned into a detention centre named Papa-II.

In 1996, the Fairview guest house was used as official residence by then J&K Chief Secretary Ashok Jaitley. It was renovated in 2003 and used as official residence by then Finance Minister Muzaffer Hussain Baig.

In 2005, when Mufti Sayeed completed his 3 years of term as chief minister of PDP-Congress coalition government, he moved in along with his daughter Mehbooba Mufti to the Fairview and since then Muftis have been living there and it has been their address in Kashmir.

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

MAHARASHTRA Industry department on Friday initiated the probe in alleged allocations of government plot to Bollywood actor Riteish Deshmukh and his wife Genelia Deshmukh owned firm for an agro-processing unit in Latur.

Uday Samat, the industries minister on Friday said that the Maharashtra Industrial Development Cooperation (MIDC) CEO Bipin Sharma has been probing allegations against Desh Agro Pvt Ltd, owned by film actor and actress.

It was alleged that MIDC had allocated the major plot in MIDC of Latur to Desh Agri Pvt Ltd for an agro-processing unit when 16 industrialists were already on waiting list.

The plot was given at a concessional rate of ₹605 per square metre within three weeks of formation of the company by the actor . The application for land was processed within 10 days. The company with a share capital of ₹7.50 crore was set up for processing soybean.

The BJP, which obtained the information about the land allocation under the Right to Information (RTI), has alleged Riteish Deshmukh and Genelia Deshmukh were accorded special favours by the state government.

L-G slams Farooq: 'Don't justify killings of civilians'

FAYAZ WANI @ Srinagar

IN an apparent reference to three-time former J&K Chief Minister and National Conference president Farooq Abdullah, Lt Governor Manoj Sinha on Friday said some people for their petty interests are trying to justify the innocent civilian killings and strict action as per law will be taken against them in the coming days.

"Violence has no place in civilized society. Some persons for their petty interests are trying to justify the innocent killings in Jammu and Kashmir," Lt Governor Manoj Sinha said while addressing the Police Commemoration Day ceremony at Zewan in outskirts of Srinagar on Friday.

He said in this nation, everyone has the fundamental right to freedom of expression as envisaged by the founders of the Constitution. "However, if anyone, through words or deeds, will attempt to play with the unity and integrity of the country, I want to warn them that under the law of the land they will also face action in the coming days."

He was indirectly referring to former J&K CM and NC president Farooq Abdullah, who recently said the targeted killings will continue till justice is delivered. He had said earlier they (government) used to say killings were taking place due to Article 370 but that has been abrogated now, so why such killings have not stopped. "Why are they being killed? Who is responsible for it?"

Taking a dig at Pakistan and its proxies, Lt Governor said frustrated by the peace and development of J&K, "our neighbouring country is targeting innocent civilians.

Maoists own up Delhi stir against farm laws

PRANAB MONDAL @ Kolkata

THE CPI (Maoist)'s central committee has issued a statement in Kolkata, claiming the outlawed outfit was involved in the farmers' agitation in Delhi. The statement, made available on Friday, described former Maoist politburo member Kobad Ghandy as a traitor.

"The militant movement of the farmers forced the Modi government to withdraw the three laws. The success of the struggle provided a good experience to our party," the statement said.

The group has faced its biggest setback with security agencies reportedly informing the Union home ministry that eight central committee members have been neutralised in nine months. This makes for one-third of the strength of the outfit's policy-making body.

The outfit said that in one year, its 124 armed soldiers were killed during Samadhan-Prahar, an operation to decimate the People's Liberation Guerrilla Army (PLGA), the armed wing of Maoists. The outfit claimed to have penetrated the Muslim community.

"A member of the party's politburo, Kobad Ghandy, betrayed the revolutionary movement and released a book 'Fractured Freedom – a prison memoir' to which the central committee wrote a reply in a theoretical booklet. It stated that Kobad's book was a confession of a betrayer. It expelled him from the party," the statement said.

Ghandy, 71, an Oxford University-educated academic, was arrested in 2009 but was acquitted and released in 2019. He reportedly participated in a meeting with the Nepalese Maoist leadership in Delhi in 2005.

The statement added: "In the guerrilla actions of PLGA, 13 paramilitary, commando and special police personnel were eliminated and 54 of them were injured. Five anti-people political leaders, 34 police informers, two betrayers were eliminated."

C'garh culture in focus as CM announces tribal dance fest dates

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Delhi

CHHATTISGARH Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel announced here on Friday that the National Tribal Dance Festival, a three-day cultural extravaganza celebrating the tribal way of life will be held from November 1-3 in Raipur. The event will witness the participation of tribal dance groups from various states and Union Territories of India along with guest participation from a few countries portraying their respective tribal folk culture.

India's tribal culture came to life as Chhattisgarh Tourism hosted a Tourism Conclave — a one-day event with panel discussions, ending with a marquee performance by Padma awardee folk singer Teejan Bai.

While the primary aim of the conclave was to create a buzz about the National Tribal Dance Festival, it also brought together culture and tourism experts, administrators and investors to re-position Chhattisgarh as a state with many opportunities in tourism, including its rich culture.

The event was hosted by Baghel at Kiran Nadar Museum of Art, Saket, where he interacted with the media and discussed the initiatives taken under his leadership in the field of tourism and culture for promoting Chhattisgarh.

"Tribal culture is deeply-rooted in Chhattisgarh. Our government has taken several initiatives and started many schemes for ensuring the overall development of tribals in the last three years. National Tribal Dance Festival is an effort towards preserving the rich cultural heritage of tribals. Today, the tribes are getting good prices for their forest produce. We have created a better market for them by doing value addition in forest produce. Tribals have been given forest rights to help them move forward fearlessly and live a dignified life," he said.

Chhattisgarh CM Bhupesh Baghel announces National Tribal Dance Festival to be held at Raipur, at a conclave held at Kiran Nadar Museum of Art, New Delhi, on Friday

'Fest to bring world's tribals on one stage'

Bhupesh Baghel highlighted the importance of showcasing tribal traditions while staying true to the essence of their culture. "This festival aims at bringing together the tribals of the world so that they connect with each other and cherish their culture," he said.

He also highlighted the importance of showcasing the tribal traditions and practices while staying true to the essence of their culture.

"This festival aims at bringing the tribals of the world on one platform so that they connect with each other and cherish their culture, and their strength and move forward. We are moving towards creating Chhattisgarh as the world forum for tribals," Baghel said.

Speaking about the initiative, state's Tourism Minister Tamradhwaj Sahu said, "National Tribal Dance Festival has been a pivotal initiative to boost state tourism and generate opportunities for employment for local people. The Chhattisgarh Tourism Board recognises the growing demand for special community-based experiences. We invite people to come and explore the tribal areas of the state to experience tribal culture and traditions."

The event was held in association with Kiran Nadar Museum of Art. Speaking about the museum's association with Chhattisgarh, Nadar, chairperson of the museum, said, "The National Tribal Dance Festival is a one-of-a-kind initiative that not only celebrates but also helps to preserve and promote tribal traditions and values. We are excited to collaborate with them to support local crafts and artisans and provide them with a national platform to showcase their work."

During the event, a demonstration by Biti Chitra artist Kem Vaishnav was held. Bastar tea and coffee was served to the invitees. Traditional crafts and food from Bastar and Kondagaon were on sale. Various brands and organisations showcased their products.

Toll of child deaths blamed on syrup reaches 133

The number of child deaths from acute kidney injuries in Indonesia has risen to 133, the health minister said Friday, attributing the fatalities to harmful substances found in medicinal syrups. Indonesia saw a spike in acute kidney injury (AKI) cases this year, prompting a probe and ban on all syrup and liquid medicine prescriptions and sales. "We have identified 241 cases of acute kidney injury in 22 provinces, with 133 fatalities," Health Minister Budi Gunadi Sadikin said

EC BARS IMRAN KHAN FROM PUBLIC OFFICE FOR FIVE YEARS

YESHI SELI @ New Delhi

FORMER Pakistan prime minister Imran Khan was on Friday disqualified from running for political office for five years by its election commission for hiding proceeds from the sale of gifts he received from foreign leaders while in power.

It means the Pakistan Tehreek-e-Insaf (PTI) chairman cannot become a member of Parliament for five years.

Gifts received from foreign dignitaries and heads of state are stored in what is called the Toshakhana or the treasure house. The 70-year-old cricketer-turned-politician is accused of making a killing by selling the gifts when he was prime minister between 2018 and 2022 but not fully disclosing the profits the the poll watchdog.

The complaint was lodged by the Pakistan Democratic Movement, whose members now make up the government. It also accused Khan of failing to disclose some of the gifts while selling them and making handsome profits.

The disqualification comes days after the PTI did well in a clutch of assembly bypolls.

Police use teargas to disperse protesters during a demonstration against the disqualification of former prime minister Imran Khan from running for public office by the country's election commission, in Islamabad on Friday | AP

Unanimous decision by Election Commission

The decision was unanimously taken by a five-member bench headed by Chief Election Commissioner Sikander Sultan Raja. However, the member from Punjab was not present for the announcement. The bench said Khan was involved in corrupt practices, for which action would be taken against him

Khan's first response to the accusation was that he had not made public some gifts on grounds of national security, but in a written submission admitted buying items worth nearly 22 million Pakistani rupees from the Toshakhana and later selling them for more than twice that amount. He claimed the valuation was done through proper channels.

In Pakistan, it is mandatory for the government to declare all gifts but leaders are allowed to retain those below a certain value. The more valuable items must go to Toshakhana, but in some cases the recipient can buy them back at about 50% of their value — a discount Khan raised from the earlier 20% when he was still in office.

For his part, Khan denied the charges, adding he would file and appeal in the High Court of Islamabad.

Angered by the verdict, party leaders urged supporters to come out on streets to stage a protest. Many people gathered in different parts of the country to express their solidarity with Khan. At some places, the police had to fire tear gas shells to contain the protesters.

Rubbing salt in his wound, Pakistan Muslim League–Nawaz leader Maryam Nawaz called Khan 'a certified thief'. Mariyam is part of the ruling coalition led by Shehbaz Sharif, which took over from Khan after he lost a vote of confidence in April this year amid high drama in Parliament.

Buzz builds on bojo entering fray, sunak holds solid lead

LONDON

BRITAIN'S divisive former leader Boris Johnson on Friday received heavyweight Conservative backing to stage a sensational comeback following the resignation of PM Liz Truss.

UK Defence Secretary Ben Wallace said on Friday that he was 'leaning towards' supporting former PM Boris Johnson as the best candidate to succeed Liz Truss in Downing Street. "At the moment, I would lean towards Boris Johnson," he told broadcasters, while noting that Johnson—who was forced from office just last month—still had 'some questions to answer' over multiple scandals that tarred his three-year tenure.

"I'm backing Boris #BorisorBust," tweeted UK Business Secretary Jacob Rees-Mogg, one of the head cheerleaders from the Johnson camp.

Meanwhile, another clear frontrunner to take over from Liz Truss remains uncertain on Friday due to deep divisions among the Tories, but the bookies' odds have rocketed in favour of British Indian former chancellor Rishi Sunak.

The 42-year-old is holding a solid 55% lead with the Oddschecker betting odds aggregator, followed by a 29% chance of Boris Johnson making a comeback. Third placed in what is emerging as a three-way contest is Leader of the Commons Penny Mordaunt, who became the first to formally declare her candidacy. Mordaunt said she was running for "a fresh start, a united party and leadership in the national interest"

"I back Rishi Sunak to be our next PM. He has the plan and credibility to: restore financial stability, help get inflation down and deliver sustainable tax cuts over time; and unite the Conservatives by bringing the best talent into government to deliver for the British people," tweeted former Cabinet minister Dominic Raab.

Parliament passes amendment that curbs SL Prez's powers

COLOMBO

SRI Lankan lawmakers overwhelmingly approved a constitutional amendment on Friday that trims the powers of the president, a key demand of protesters who are seeking political reforms and solutions to the country's economic crisis. On Friday, 179 lawmakers from the governing coalition and opposition voted in favour of the motion and only one voted against it, ensuring the two-thirds majority in the 225-member house required to make the amendment law. The amendment transfers some presidential powers, including the appointment of officials, to a constitutional council comprising lawmakers and respected non-politicians. The council will recommend candidates to the president for appointment.

The council's recommendation is required for presidential appointments of senior judges, attorney generals, central bank governors, police, election commissioners, and bribery and corruption investigators. The government says the changes will help ensure the independence of the judiciary and public service. Current President Ranil Wickremesinghe, who succeeded ousted President Gotabaya Rajapaksa in July, promised to limit the powers of the presidency and strengthen Parliament.

CCI decision setback for Indian users, says Google

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

A day after the Competition Commission of India (CCI) imposed a penalty of ₹1,337.76 crore on Google, the US tech giant said the watchdog's decision is a major setback for Indian users and businesses.

The firm said it would review the CCI decision to evaluate next steps. The CCI, India's anti-trust watchdog, on October 20, 2022, slapped a penalty of ₹1,337.76 crore on Google for abusing its dominant position in multiple markets in the Android Mobile device ecosystem, apart from issuing cease and desist orders. It directed Google to modify its conduct within a defined timeline. The watchdog said Google's business was found to be driven by the ultimate intent of increasing users on its platforms so that they interact with its revenue earning service i.e. online search, which directly affects sale of online advertising services by Google. "Android has created more choice for everyone, and supports thousands of successful businesses in India and around the world. The CCI's decision is a major setback for Indian users and businesses, opening serious security risks for Indians who trust Android's security features, and raising the cost of mobile devices. We will review the decision to evaluate next steps," said Google.

The CCI opined OEMs (original equipment manufacturers) should not be restrained from choosing from among Google's proprietary applications to be pre-installed and should not be forced to pre-install a bouquet of applications, and deciding the placement of pre-installed apps, on their smart devices.

Windfall tax on fuel exports hits RIL profits in Q2

RIL's net profit came down to ₹13,656 cr in Q2FY23, as against ₹13,680 cr for Q2FY22 and was down 24% from ₹17,955 cr in Q1FY23

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

RELIANCE INDUSTRIES LTD (RIL), India's largest listed company, on Friday reported a sharp fall in its quarterly profit (sequentially) as the company's oil-to-chemical (O2C) business was significantly impacted by the government's newly introduced windfall tax on exports of fuels.

RIL's consolidated net profit came down to ₹13,656 crore (attributable to the owners) in Q2FY23, as compared to ₹13,680 crore from the year-ago quarter (Q2FY22), and was down 24% from ₹17,955 crore in the June-ended quarter (Q1FY23). Analysts at large were expecting RIL to report ₹14,000-17,000 crore profit in Q2FY23.

The O2C segment EBITDA for Q2FY23 fell 5.9% YoY to ₹11,968 crore, primarily on account of introduction of special additional excise duty (SAED) on transportation fuels and lower polymer deltas, RIL said in a regulatory filing. In Q1FY23, RIL's 02C segment EBITDA came at ₹19,888. Similarly, operating margin for this segment came down to 7.5% in Q2FY23 from 12.3% in Q1FY23.

SAED or the windfall tax related costs during the quarter was ₹4,039 crore. The government introduced SAED from July 1. "Performance of our O2C business reflects subdued demand and weak margin environment across downstream chemical products. Transportation fuel margins were better than last year but significantly lower sequentially. Segment performance was also impacted by the introduction of special additional excise duties during the quarter to ensure stable supply and lower volatility in the domestic market," said Mukesh D. Ambani, Chairman and MD of RIL.

Reliance to demerge fin services arm Jio Financial

Reliance Billionaire Mukesh Ambani's Reliance Industries Ltd on Friday said it will demerge its financial services arm and list it on the stock exchanges. In a statement, the firm said Reliance shareholders will be issued one equity share of Jio Financial Services Ltd (JFSL), at a face value ₹10, for every share they hold in the company. JFSL plans to launch consumer and merchant lending business, while continuing to evaluate organic growth, joint-venture partnerships, it said. ENS

Reliance-BP Mobility profitability continued to be adversely impacted as retail fuel prices remained capped.

RIL said its retail business delivered record revenue and profits during the quarter led by broad-based growth across all consumer baskets. Reliance Retail's net profit for the quarter was ₹2,305 crore, up 36% YoY. Reliance Jio's net profit surged by 28% YoY to ₹4,518 crore in Q2FY23 as its ARPU (Average Revenue Per User) improved to ₹177.2, up 23.5% Y-o-Y. RIL's oil and gas segment revenues for 2Q FY23 increased by 134.4% YoY to ₹3,853 crore.

NEPAL

INFLATION RISES TO 8.64% AHEAD OF ELECTIONS

Nepal's annual inflation surged to 8.64% for the month that ended in mid-September compared with 3.49% a year earlier, central bank data showed on Friday, presenting a challenge for the ruling alliance ahead of a general election. The rate has stayed around the highest levels since 2016 and is driven by high prices of food and fuel. Like many other countries, Nepal is also seeing a dip in its foreign exchange reserves and higher pump prices due to the Ukraine war. The country's five-party ruling coalition, led by the centrist Nepali Congress party that has been in government since July last year, will compete against a loose alliance of the main communist opposition and royalists in the Novebmer, 20 vote for the 275-member parliament. For both sides, addressing the high cost of living would be a priority during the ongoing festival season in the Himalayan country of 30 million people. Nepal's gross foreign exchange reserves fell 2% to $9.35 billion in the month to mid-September from mid-July this year - sufficient to cover imports for less than eight months, central bank data showed.

SRI LANKA

CONSUMER INFLATION HITS RECORD 73.7% IN SEPT

Sri Lanka's National Consumer Price Index (NCPI) rose to a new high of 73.7% in September from a year earlier, quickening from 70.2% in August, the statistics department said. Annual food price inflation picked up to 85.8% from 84.6% in August, while prices of non-food items rose 62.8%. Sri Lanka's Central Bank Governor Nandalal Weerasinghe predicted earlier on Thursday that inflation in the island nation is peaking, with price rises likely to ease this month. The NCPI captures broader retail price inflation and is released with a lag of 21 days every month. The more closely monitored Colombo Consumer Price Index (CCPI) (LKCCPI=ECI), released at the end of each month, rose 69.8% in August. It acts as a leading indicator for national prices and shows how inflation is evolving in Sri Lanka's biggest city. Sri Lanka is planning to increase direct taxes to reduce the deficit in its upcoming budget for 2023 and put the economy on a more stable footing, President Ranil Wickremesinghe said. An acute dollar shortage has left Sri Lanka struggling to pay for essential imports including food, fuel, fertiliser and medicine.

JAPAN

MUST WATCH FX IMPACT ON ECONOMY: BOJ'S KURODA

Bank of Japan Governor Haruhiko Kuroda said on Friday the central bank must closely watch how financial and currency market moves could affect the country's economy and prices. "Japan's economy is likely to recover as the impact of the coronavirus pandemic and supply constraints ease," Kuroda said in a speech to an annual meeting of credit unions. "Uncertainty over Japan's economic outlook is extremely high," he added, pointing to risks such as the fallout from the pandemic, the war in Ukraine and overseas economic developments. Meanwhile, The Bank of Japan will start streaming Governor Haruhiko Kuroda's post-policy meeting news conferences live on YouTube, it said on Friday, to give the market greater access to any signals delivered on the yen or monetary policy. The central bank will start offering the live stream of Kuroda's briefings, in Japanese only, from the next policy-setting meeting on October, 28. The YouTube channel will also be accessible through the BOJ website, the central bank said.

VIL board approves issuing of ₹1,600 cr debentures to ATC

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

VODAFONE IDEA LIMITED (VIL) board on Friday approved issuing of ₹1,600 crore debentures to ATC Telecom Infrastructure.

The debt-laden telecom operator, in an exchange filing, said its board approved issuance of up to 16,00 crore rupee-denominated optionally convertible, unsecured, unrated and unlisted debentures having a face value of ₹10,00,000 each. The debentures will be issued in one or more tranches on a preferential basis, and the funds raised will be used to pay amounts owed to ATC.

"The funds raised shall be used to pay ATC amounts owed to ATC by the firm under the master lease agreements and, to the extent of any remainder, for general corporate purposes of the company," said the company. Currently, VIL's tower dues stand at ₹10,000 crore. Out of this, ₹7,000 crore is owed to Indus Towers alone, while ₹3,000 crore is owed to ATC.

The optionally convertible, unlisted, unsecured and unrated debentures (OCDs) will carry a coupon rate of 11.2% per annum, payable semi-annually during its term. Maximum OCD term will be of 18 months from the date of issue and allotment of first tranche of OCDs.

The company said the preferential issue would be subject to certain conditions, including inter-alia the approval of the shareholders of the company and the Government of India having converted the interest from deferment of Adjusted Gross Revenue and spectrum dues owed by the company. According to the report, the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) approved the government's proposal to convert VIL's pending deals into equity.

The conversion of interest on AGR dues, which stand at ₹16,130 crore means the government will be holding close to 33% equity stake. VIL has been trying to raise funds for the past two year but failed to get any investors.

VC investment in India softens in Q3, 2022, due to economic challenges

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ Bengaluru

FOR the third straight quarter, venture capital investments in Asia dropped in Q3 of 2022, and in India it was relatively quiet due to growing economic challenges, said KPMG's Venture Pulse Q3, 2022.

The largest deals of the quarter included $210 million raised by edtech upGrad, $165 million raised by Lenskart, and $130 million raised by neo-bank platform Niyo.

Fintech was one of the most attractive sectors of investment in India this quarter, it said.

"VC investment in India softened this quarter across most industry verticals. Fintech investment however, continued to buck this trend, garnering significant investor attention, as evidenced by a number of big deals, including mega-rounds to Niyo and InsuranceDekho," said Nitish Poddar, Partner and National Leader, Private Equity, KPMG in India.

This quarter's Global Fintech Fest 2022 also placed a spotlight on the Fintech ecosystem in India, believed to be one of the fastest growing fintech markets in the world, he added. Globally, in Q3 2022 VC-backed companies raised $87 billion across 7,817 deals.

Another report too said that there has been a decline in deal volumes and values in the third quarter.

According to Grant Thornton Bharat's Dealtracker September 2022 report, the third quarter recorded only 450 deals worth $10.2 billion, the second-lowest quarterly values seen in the last five years. Q3, 2022, recorded three deals valued over $1 billion, 10 deals valued between $100 and $999 million, and 15 deals valued between $5 and $99 million.

Shanthi Vijetha, Partner-Growth at Grant Thornton Bharat, said, "Two black swan events – pandemic and the Russia-Ukraine geopolitical conflict have sparked inflationary conditions and significantly weighed on growth. Even as the outlook for global growth remains clouded by uncertainties, domestic growth is expected to hold up in the coming months."

SBI hikes term deposit rates by up to 0.80%

MUMBAI: SBI on Friday upped its interest rates on term deposits by up to 0.8% amid a 'war for deposits' in the banking system. Fixed deposits of under ₹2 crore for a period of over 211 days but less than 1 year will earn an interest of 5.50% from October 22, as against 4.7% earlier. For other maturities, the quantum of the rate hike is lower at 0.25-0.6%, while 7-45 days deposit rate has been left untouched at 3% per annum. Credit growth in the system has touched 18%, while deposits are still trailing by barely touching the double-digit mark amid rate hikes by the RBI to tame inflation. PTI

Aviation regulator revokes 50% cap on SpiceJet

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

THE Directorate General of Civil Aviation (DGCA) has revoked the 50% restriction on SpiceJet flights with effect from October 30 even as the loss-making airline continued to report technical malfunctions.

As per the DGCA's approved winter schedule, SpiceJet would be able to operate 100% of its flights scheduled from October 30. On July 27 this year, the DGCA had restricted the airline to operate not more than 50% of its flights for a period of eight weeks following a spate of technical glitches mid-air that risked passengers' lives. This restriction last month was extended till October 29. It was keenly watched whether the regulator would keep the ban in place in winter schedule in the wake of an emergency landing that took place earlier this month in Hyderabad following detection of smoke inside the cabin of a SpiceJet flight.

SpiceJet has now been allowed to operate 3,193 flight departures per week by the DGCA in the winter schedule. In most part of the ongoing summer schedule, SpiceJet was operating nearly 2,000 flights a week. Airlines are allowed to operate 21,941 departure flights on domestic routes every week in the winter schedule, which will be effective from October 30, 2022, till March 25, 2023. While this is 1.55% lower than 22,287 flights operated in the previous winter schedule, SpiceJet's allocation has been increased by over 6%. Out of the 21,941 departures, the maximum allotment has been given to IndiGo at 10,085 departures. IndiGo has a market share of 56-58% in the domestic market and hence a 50% allocation is justified. Air India will have 1,990 departures, while Vistara is given 1,941 and AirAsia India is given 1,462 departures. Go Air will have 1,390 departures per week, Alliance Air - 1,034 and newly launched Akasa Air – 479.

NCLAT ASKS JET AIRWAYS TO PAY PF, GRATUITY DUES

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU @ New Delhi

AMID delay in re-launching the airline, insolvency appellate tribunal NCLAT on Friday directed Jet Airways' new owner -- Jalan-Kalrock consortium -- to pay the unpaid provident fund and gratuity dues of employees of the carrier.

The National Company Law Appellate Tribunal (NCLAT) has directed the former resolution professional to "compute the payments to be made to workmen and employees within one month from today" and communicate the same to the consortium to take steps for the payment.

"Successful resolution applicants are directed to make payment of unpaid provident fund to the workmen till the date of insolvency commencement, after deducting the amount already paid towards the provident fund in the resolution plan to the workmen," a two-member NCLAT bench said.

The appellate tribunal also said the workmen are entitled to payment of their gratuity dues as on the insolvency commencement date, after adjusting any amount towards gratuity paid under the resolution plan. The consortium won the bid through an insolvency resolution process for Jet Airways, which had stopped operations in April 2019 due to the financial crisis.

FESTIVE SEASON

Dhanteras, Diwali push up demand for precious metals

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

THERE is an uptick in demand for precious metals as Dhanteras, the festival of wealth and prosperity, and Diwali are around the corner. This festive time is considered to be one of the best days to purchase items.

On Friday, gold prices also saw a marginal dip, as 10 gm of 24k gold and 22k gold stood at ₹50,450, and ₹46,250, respectively, from previous close of ₹50,560 and ₹46,350.

Retailers say festive sentiment is positive among consumers. On the back of strong demand during the first two quarters, clubbed with favourable gold prices, Ramesh Kalyanaraman, executive director, Kalyan Jewellers, said they are confident that the demand momentum will pick up pace with more consumers opting to make investments in the yellow metal. The jewellery retailer is already seeing an uptick in consumer demand in the run-up to the festive occasions such as Diwali, Kali Puja and Lakshmi Puja.

"We are witnessing a paradigm shift in buying behaviour among consumers, as more consumers are now preferring organised jewellery players," he said.

Apart from silver and gold, platinum jewellery is also moving in a positive direction. "This year's H1 has seen tremendous recovery and phenomenal growth, with weddings and the festive season returning after two years. With the unlock phases post COVID, platinum has been able to maintain a consistent and strong position in the Indian jewellery industry," said Vaishali Banerjee, managing director, PGI – India. Demand for precious metals jumped by 40% (YOY) ahead of the Dhanteras with gold contributing to 70% of the overall demand during this festive season, said the latest Justdial Consumer Report.

Mumbai, Hyderabad, Delhi and Bengaluru topped when it comes to demand for gold jewellery among tier-1 cities. Delhi topped the demand for gold coins contributing to nearly 41% of the searches and Mumbai for gold bars with 34% of the demand, said the report.

Though overall there is a positive sentiment, Somasundaram PR, regional CEO, India at World Gold Council, said unlike the Diwali season of 2021, this season may not have the advantage of pent-up demand or savings from muted wedding celebrations fuelling higher gold purchases.

Apart from retailers, fintech platforms are also offering various discounts to attract more consumers on account of the festive season.

FESTIVE DEMAND

There is rise in gold demand on the back of softening prices

Demand for gold in tier-I cities went up by 28% and in tier-II by 37%, says Justdial report

Apart from gold and silver, platinum jewellery is also seeing good demand

Fintech platforms have also announced offers for gold and silver purchases

10 gm of 24k gold and 22k gold cost nearly ₹50,450 and ₹46,250, respectively

BIG SHOW

ICC MEN'S T20 WORLD CUP AUSTRALIA 2022

The first phase is over and Sri Lanka, Netherlands, Ireland and Zimbabwe have made it to the Super 12 stage which gets underway from Saturday. Here is a look at each of the teams.

GROUP 1

AFGHANISTAN

For the second successive edition, they have made it to the Super 12 stage straight. While a lot was expected from them in the previous edition because of the conditions, they face a daunting task this time. Australian conditions are not familiar to them, and it remains to be seen how their batters will get used to the pace and bounce. That said, their bowling still looks their strongest suit. Can be party poopers.

AUSTRALIA

The defending champions will eye successive titles. From the last edition, they have added more firepower in the form of Tim David and Cameron Green. With a potent pace attack and good spinners to play second fiddle, Australia have all bases covered. They are a settled unit and are firing on all cylinders. Don't be surprised if Steve Smith doesn't find a place in the XI.

ENGLAND

Are one of the heavyweights in the group, who are expected to make the semifinals. Eoin Morgan is gone, but Jos Buttler has seamlessly recharged his side. Blessed with some of the cleanest strikers, they are bound to be a headache for opponents with their attacking gameplan. Even in the absence of Jonny Bairstow and Jason Roy, they still look formidable with quality bowlers to back them.

IRELAND

Have made it to the second stage of the T20 World Cup for the first time. Placed in a tough group, it will be interesting to see where they finish in the end. In the past, especially in the 50-over World Cup, have shown they can beat any side on a given day. In the shortest format, would definitely back themselves to spring a surprise or two. Will take the field with nothing to lose attitude.

GROUP 2

BANGLADESH

Are fortunate to get here without playing the first round. It is a format that the Tigers are yet to crack. Unlike other teams, they are not blessed with power-hitters, which goes heavily against them. With a one-dimensional attack that relies heavily on spin, they have not been able to even challenge opponents. Lost all five games at Super 12 stage last time, and are entering the current edition low on confidence.

NETHERLANDS

They are here for the first time. In the 2010 edition, they famously beat England, and can back themselves to a similar upset win here. They showed in the first round what they are capable of and they have a chance to show it against the top teams. Compared to the other three who qualified from the first round, the Dutch face the biggest challenge of all.

SOUTH AFRICA

The dark horses from the group. That is because of the pace attack that includes Kagiso Rabada, Anrich Nortje and Lungi Ngidi. If that isn't enough, throw in Keshav Maharaj and Tabraiz Shamsi, two excellent spinners make them an all-round attack. There is plenty of promise in the batting unit as well, if they come to the party, will be hard to stop.

NEW ZEALAND

If it is a World Cup, you write them off at your own peril. Led by Kane Williamson, they once again start a tournament flying under the radar. They have a settled unit and will bank on players to deliver their roles to perfection. It sounds simple, but it is what they follow sans any super stars. Their bowling looks formidable with a pace attack that includes two out-and-out pacers.

INDIA

New captain, new coach, a new approach with the bat. Are one of the favourites to make it to the semifinals. But, there is a but, which tells a story in itself. Their bowling in the absence of Jasprit Bumrah will be tested to the core at the death. They will be relying on their batters to deliver the job and on that front, they are definitely not short on ammunition. Game against South Africa could be a deal breaker.

PAKISTAN

Were the life of the T20 World Cup last year. It remains to be seen which Pakistan turns up this time as there are plenty of concerns about their batting unit. Bowling has always remained their strongest suit and it is no different this time as they have a blend of pacers and spinners who could make conditions work in their favour.

ZIMBABWE

After missing the bus last time, they have qualified for the Super 12's this time. Sikander Raza is their player in form with bat and ball. Are not used to the conditions Down Under, meaning they have to bring their A game at all points to even challenge the rest. With Netherlands and Bangladesh in the mix, they would fancy at least a couple of wins.

SRI LANKA

Had to play the first phase games to get here and are hampered by few injury concerns. While the bowling looks a weak link, they have enough firepower in their batting. At the Asia Cup, they showed what they are capable of if they click as a unit. But this would be a different ball game, especially for the bowlers.

Zimbabwe and Ireland advance to Super 12s

AGENCIES @ Hobart

ZIMBABWE made it to the Super 12 stage of the T20 World Cup for the first time after an easy five-wicket win over Scotland in a Group B match here on Friday.

Pacer Tendai Chatara led a spectacular bowling show (2/14) as Zimbabwe restricted Scotland to a below-par 132 for six. In reply, Zimbabwe cantered home with their star all-rounder Sikandar Raza slamming a 23-ball 40.

Earlier, Ireland trumped West Indies with a stunning nine-wicket win. It was Paul Stirling's unbeaten 66 from 48 balls (6x4, 2x6) that sealed the chase with 15 balls to spare after legspinner Gareth Delany's (3/16) restricted the Windies to 146/5. Brief scores: West Indies 146/5 in 20 ovs (King 62 n.o, Delany 3-16) lost to Ireland 150/1 in 17.3 ovs (Stirling 66 n.o, Tucker 47 n.o); Scotland 132/6 in 20 ovs (Munsey 54, Chatara 2-14, Ngarava 2-28) lost to Zimbabwe 133/5 in 18.3 ovs (Ervine 57, Raza 40).

IOA SGM set to be held on Nov 10

INDRANEEL DAS @ Chennai

THE much-awaited notice for the Special General Meeting of the Indian Olympic Association (IOA) was served late on Friday. The notice, signed by IOA secretary general Rajeev Mehta, has called for the meeting at the Olympic Bhavan in New Delhi on November 10. As of now, the big agenda is to adopt the amended constitution prepared by the court-appointed retired judge, L Nageswara Rao, in the general body.

The letter, dated 21/10/2022, has been addressed to the members of IOC in India, the Life President of IOA, member National Sports Federations (NSFs) of the IOA, State Olympic Associations, Union Territory Olympic Associations, Services Sports Control Board, Athletes Commission representatives and Associate/Non Voting Members of IOA. The Supreme Court had asked the IOA to call for a meeting SGM by October 20.

According to the letter Mehta served the notice, "In accordance with the decision dated 10th October 2022 of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India in SLP (Civil) No. 14533/2022, Special General Meeting of the Indian Olympic Association will be held on 10th November 2022 at 10.30 a.m..."

The letter mentioned about a few crucial points. According to the letter, the SC had appointed "Rao for the task of amendment to the constitution of the IOA, preparation and finalisation of the electoral college of the IOA and conduct of the elections to the Executive Council of the IOA". Amendment of the constitution is critical but one factor that would change the whole dynamics in the IOA election is the new electoral college.

Chennaiyin FC and FC Goa players in action in Chennai on Friday | R SATISH BABU

Goa hand Chennaiyin first defeat of season

ASHOK VENUGOPAL @ Chennai

BEFORE their match against Goa, Chennaiyin coach, Thomas Brdaric, challenged his players to take to the field with the same intensity and desire they showed during their first two games. But poor marking, some questionable finishing and below par agility meant they suffered their first defeat of the season. They now have four points from three games. Riding on the brilliance of Redeem Tlang, Noah Sadaoui, and especially, Dheeraj's goalkeeping, Goa ran out 2-0 winners at the Jawaharlal Nehru stadium on Friday.

It was a cagey opening with both teams not getting clear cut chances before Goa took the lead with their first presentable chance of the game. After Sadaoui collected a long ball, he took it to the touchline before sending a cross. Redeem did the rest, getting ahead of Narian Das to send the ball past Devansh Das. CFC had the opportunity to restore parity but Dheeraj diverted Rahim Ali's against the crossbar. Forward Petar Sliskovic failed to convert the rebound. The hosts had other opportunities but squandered all of them.

That same pattern repeated multiple times in the second half as Goa hung on. They made the points safe when Sadaoui, who assisted the first goal, turned finisher for the second.

They are the only side with a 100 per cent record in the league. They next face Hyderabad next Saturday. For Chennai, it's a trip to East Bengal on November 4.

IOC in talks with 10 bidders for 2036 Games

ENS/AGENCIES @ Chennai

THE bidding process for the 2036 Olympics has already begun. According to reports, the International Olympic Committee (IOC) is in talks with 10 potential candidates to host a future Summer Games, the global group of national Olympic leaders was told Thursday.

India is among other nations like Egypt, England, Indonesia and Qatar who have shown interest to host the 2036 Olympic Games. South Korea became the latest country to express interest. "We are currently working with 10 interested NOCs and regions across four continents," AP quoted IOC director general Christophe de Kepper as saying at the Association of National Olympic Committees meeting in Seoul.

India too had shown interest to host the Olympics. After the successfully hosting the National Games, IOA felt it would be the right place to host the multi-discipline event. IOA secretary general Rajeev Mehta said that India will try its best to host the Olympics. "We will try our best to host the 2036 ," he said, adding that they have the full support of the Central government including the Prime Minister.

That Olympics is the next Summer Games available to be awarded in a mostly secretive process led by IOC officials to avoid both expensive public campaigning and a vote contested by multiple candidates.

The system that picked Brisbane as the 2032 host 11 years in advance was introduced after French-led investigations of alleged vote-buying in the 2016 and 2020 Olympics bidding. Those campaigns were won by Rio de Janeiro and Tokyo, respectively.

HI raises prospects for Hockey India League

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @ Chennai

HOCKEY India's new regime have enquired about the possibility of having a separate window for a Hockey India League-like competition. The franchise competition has been shelved for the last five years because of a variety of reasons but Dilip Tirkey, HI's new boss, wrote to Thierry Weil, FIH CEO, about the prospect of finding a standalone window for it.

"They asked to look at the international calendar so that when they plan their league, it is not interfering with other important events," Weil revealed in a press conference on Friday ahead of the upcoming season of the FIH Pro League. "That (events clashing) would not be nice for the international calendar but it would definitely not be good for the Indian league. I am sure soon we will have a dialogue together with Hockey India to see what would be the best period for the HIL." When Tirkey corresponded with FIH, the Indian body also asked about suitable dates for the conduct of a 'shorter women's league'.

That HI have looked into reviving the league is welcome news as the competition has been cited as one of the primary reasons behind the Indian team's rise on the global stage after a couple of decades of under-performance. But it doesn't come as a surprise as Tirkey had stated that getting the league back up and running as one of the main things on his agenda.

"I also believe there is scope to revive the erstwhile Hockey India League and we also discussed the potential in starting a league on similar lines for women. In all, it has been a good start and we look forward to working together towards the development of hockey," he was quoted as saying on the HI website.

Flights for World Cup teams

On the subject of the upcoming World Cup to be co-hosted by Rourkela and Bhubaneswar, Weil revealed that chartered flights would be provided so that teams can commute between the two cities. "Hockey India together with Odisha will organise charter flights for the teams to go from Bhubaneswar to Rourkela and vice versa. They will be on specific flights that will land next to the venue in Rourkela, which is a 10-minutes drive from the airport," he said.

The new stadium in Rourkela is not yet finished — Weil opined that work was behind schedule because of the 'monsoon' — but the Frenchman is confident that everything would be finished by the beginning of December. "I don't know what the situation today is but I have full trust in Odisha that they will make it happen. Our goal was that the main facilities should be done by end of November; beautification can be done after that."

Off-field programmes play vital role in Madhya Pradesh success

GOMESH S @ Chennai

KARNATAKA needed 138 runs to clinch the U19 T20 title. In strike was opener, Annapurana G Bhosale up against Madhya Pradesh captain Soumya Tiwari. After closely watching Annapurana's 'meeting point' (where a batter meets the ball) over a few deliveries, Soumya moved Kanishka Thakur from first slip to shot mid-wicket. And the very next ball, she was caught by Kanisha, the first dismissal of the chase.

Now, it was an instinctive tactical move from the MP U19 skipper, who led them to glory. But, it did not come as a surprise as they had prepared for it behind the scenes. "When we plan for a match, we talk about all the tactics and the things to keep an eye on with the captain and the team. Unlike the senior level, in age-group, we talk a lot more. The game is planned and divised 90 percent off the field and 10 percent is implemented in the ground," Bhawna Shrivastava, the MP U19 coach told this daily.

Madhya Pradesh team with the Women's U-19 T20 Trophy in Ahmedabad on Monday

MP's title winning campaign is no surprise. After all, they were the finalists in the 2020-21 U-19 one-day trophy. Their dominance and success is the result of the investment and work that has gone in during the off-season. They have at least 10-12 camps a year where they would work on fitness, off-line courses, match simulations, tactical discussions, etc.

"The skills were always there, but the confidence of the girls was different. We have a Player Personality Development Programme (PPDP), which involves public speaking as well. They were able to express themselves and bond as a team. It made a lot of difference. They were guided well. Rohit Pandit (MPCA CAO) and Chandrakant Pandit (MPCA head coach) were in constant contact and guided us well," she adds.

The PPDP is the brainchild of Chandrakant. It involves not just cricket, but also to try and understand a player as a person and help them grow confidence. "These are regular features of courses designed by Chandu sir. The players have a fixed schedule. They do nets in the morning then attend PPDP and other classes. It's a continuous process which has been going on since he took over," said Sanjeev Rao, MPCA secretary.

Only 3 MP stars in U19 T20 Challengers

CHENNAI: Only three players from MP were among the 52 that were picked to play for four teams in the U19 Women's T20 Challengers from November 1 in Goa. In fact, Vaishnavi Sharma, who finished as leading wicket-taker (23 wickets in eight games), hasn't been selected. Reacting to the news, Abhilash Khandekar, MPCA president, said he was taken by surprise as well. "Naturally, we were expecting more players in the team considering our u-19 national title winning performance." The tournament will mark the beginning of the preparations for the U19 World Cup in South Africa in January 2023. They are set to play a quadrangular series featuring India U19 A, India U19 B, West Indies U19 and Sri Lanka U19 from November 13 in Visakhapatnam. India U19 women will play their first youth match followed in a five-match T20 series against West Indies from November 27 in Mumbai.

Ahead of Gandhada Gudi's release next week, Bengalureans get to savour some of Puneeth Rajkumar's favourite dishes

A HEARTY TRIBUTE

DESE GOWDA

GANDHADA Gudi, the late sandalwood superstar Puneeth Rajkumar's final film is set for a worldwide release later next week. But before the film hits theatres, restaurants across Bengaluru are offering fans the 'taste of Gandhada Gudi' through a special food festival courtesy of the Bruhat Bengaluru Hotels Association (BBHA). The two-day festival aims to offer fans in the city some of the late actor's favourite dishes and honour his memory.

"Puneeth was a foodie. He used to frequent a lot of restaurants in the city, sampling their menus frequently," says PC Rao, president of the BBHA. "He knew many hoteliers and chefs intimately and was truly a great friend to restaurateurs in the city," Rao says adding that the idea was suggested by a few Puneeth fans, and the BBHA immediately decided to follow up on it. "It's a small gesture from our side, and it helps us return the affection that he had for restaurateurs across the city," shares Rao.

More than a dozen well-known restaurants across Bengaluru, from cafes such as The Rameshwaram Café, Coffee Confessions, and Iyengar's oven fries to authentic south Indian restaurants such as Hallimane, Ragoo's Kitchen, and more are offering specialised menus for the event, filled with some of the power star's favourite dishes. These menus include both vegetarian and non-vegetarian options with notable dishes being masala dosae, mutton biriyani, shavige sabbakki payasa and more.

Hallimane in Malleshwaram in particular, is offering a special week-long vegetarian menu filled with Puneeth's favourite dishes. "He was one of our frequent customers. While he couldn't come into the restaurant most times to avoid being mobbed by his fans, he always sat in his car outside the restaurant and enjoyed our dishes," says Raghavendra Sanjeev Rao, co-owner of Hallimane, adding that he expects an increase in customer footfall during the event.

A docudrama that aims to showcase the beauty of Karnataka, Gandhada Gudi is a spiritual successor to the 1973 film of the same name, which had Puneeth's father, Rajkumar as the lead. The film is expected to hit theatres on Puneeth's death anniversary on October 28 2022.

QUICK FIX

MANGO KHEER PUDDING

Contributed by Annie George, Kottayam

INGREDIENTS

- Rice: 3 tbsp ■ Milk: 1/2 litre ■ Cardamom green: 1
- Cashew nuts: 3 tbsp ■ Rosewater: 2 tsp ■ Ghee: 1 tbsp
- Mango: 2 ■ Digestive biscuits: 4-5 ■ Cream: 1/4 cup
- Sugar: 1/4 cup ■ Powdered sugar: 3 tbsp ■ Butter: 1 tbsp

METHOD

- Peel the mango skin. Make a puree of the mango slices in a grinder. Keep it aside for later use.
- Heat a non-stick pan with ghee and roast cashew nuts till it's light golden.
- Take biscuits, powdered sugar, and butter and grind them coarsely. Don't add water while grinding.
- Now prepare kheer for pudding. Soak rice for half an hour. Take the soaked rice with 1/2 cup chilled milk and cardamom in a grinder. Grind it to make a fine paste.
- Boil 1/2 litre milk in a wok and add ground rice-milk mixture and keep stirring it continuously with a spatula to get a smooth textured kheer, then add sugar.
- Cook it for about 4-5 minutes on medium flame till it becomes slightly thick. Switch off the flame and add 2 tablespoons of roasted cashew nuts and rose water. Mix it well. When the kheer is ready, cool it at room temperature, then keep it in fridge to get chilled.
- Take the 1/2 cup mango puree in a bowl and add cream to it. Add rose water and mix well. Then add 2 cups of chilled butter and mix well. In a serving glass and add 2 tablespoons biscuit-butter mixture at the bottom, then add kheer-mango mixture and then 2 tablespoon mango puree on top. Garnish with rest of the roasted cashew nuts.
- Delicious mango-kheer pudding is ready, serve chilled.

Anjali Gaekwar & Manjusha Maheshwari

Amish Tripathi, Usha Subramanian, Arjun Pandalai and Sudha Murthy

I have always tried not to make a big shindig about an impending birthday. I remember my hubby telling me when we were dating: "what's a birthday more or less, when you wear yours with such finesse." Stupidly, I accepted the compliment in lieu of a gift and somehow, that ritual stuck. He would give me 'cutesy' lines, while my friends got surprise trips to Bali! Ah well! As my mother would say, that certain 'troubles' we bring upon ourselves.

Our generation of men should be grateful that we didn't expect (or didn't know) to empty bank accounts with (unrealistic) expectations! But, we were silly 'bharitya naris' who would acquiesce without much protest and accepted being disappointed. We even diligently fasted for our 'otherhalves' long and prosperous life! I remember waiting expectantly for a substantial present to drop into my thali after fasting for over fourteen hours while my 'half' just ruffled my hair and kissed me on my cheek! Of course now that I'm older (and much wiser) and have dispensed with all those rituals, I would never accept those measly hand-outs now. No siree Bob!

It was my birthday week and I was blissfully content about not getting any presents, but... my friends interjected and took my breath away! The flowers, cakes, food and wine that flooded my home overwhelmed me. But most of all, the heartfelt messages that poured in from known and unknown people uplifted my soul!

The week was packed with good cheer and invitations, starting with Tejus Jose, the GM of Hilton Embassy Golf Links who invited us to dine with him at Seta, their latest al fresco dining area. The Mediterranean and Pan-Asian food was outstanding as was the company. The evening ended with banter while cutting my birthday cake.

There was so much good cheer that I'm still left feeling a little woozy. The Bangalore Wine Club threw its monthly soiree where all of us were dressed in Marigold and metallic colours, as we partook on some fabulous food from the NE Frontier at Falak, the Indian restaurant at Leela Bhatiya City. The afternoon meandered into a not-to-be-missed soiree at The Taj West End, where the famed author Amish Tripathi was in an animated conversation with fellow author and philanthropist, Sudha Murthy. As expected the discussion was enlightening as two supremely erudite people spoke eruditely and succinctly.

Good friend Reuben Kataria has recently taken over as GM of the Four Seasons. I met up with him and his lovely 'half' Nidhi, as we enjoyed a superlative lunch at Far and East, their pan-Asian restaurant. Easily the best Japanese/ Pan-Asian restaurant in the city, the fresh fare was all on point, which made us believe that we could be dining in the best restaurants anywhere in Asia!

The day didn't end there as I raced to the presidential suite of the Shangri-La where my good friend Manjusha Maheshwari and country head of Christian Louboutin Anjali Gaekwar were hosting an intimate trunk show. I didn't know that so many women (and men) would kill to get their hands or feet into a red sole (especially after many glasses of champagne).

Whew! I managed to lock my shapely fingers on a 'darling' black Louboutin purse....happy, happy to me!

Prem, who is overwhelmed with the response to the title teaser, gives interesting details about the project bankrolled by KVN Productions

Distribution rights of Prem-Dhruva Sarja's KD sold even before shooting

CE FEATURES

THE title of Dhruva Sarja's next directed by Prem has been revealed as KD The Devil, along with a teaser of the film, which was officially launched in the presence of Bollywood actor, Sanjay Dutt, Eega producer Sai Korappati, B-Town distributor Anil Thadani among others. The Kannada film will be dubbed and released in Hindi, Tamil, Telugu, and Malayalam.

The title teaser introduces Dhruva Sarja's KD as a criminal, who is most wanted among criminals. The featurette showcases him getting released from prison after serving his term. The dialogues and music of the film have a heavy hangover of KGF. KD's story is set between 1968 and 1978 and is based on a real incident. The makers are planning to build gigantic sets of the city of Bengaluru from that era.

Interestingly, the Tamil teaser has a voiceover by Vijay Sethupathi, and the Malayalam teaser has a voiceover by Mohanlal. Sanjay Dutt, who made his Kannada debut with Yash's KGF Chapter-2 will once again be returning to South with KD playing a crucial role.

Director Prem, who is overwhelmed by the response to the title teaser, KD gave us some interesting details about the project. The film's distribution rights has been sold even before the commencement of the shoot. "While Anil Thadani, (a noted distributor of films like KGF and Kantara) has taken up distribution rights of KD in North India. Sai Korrapatti's Vaaraahi Chalana Chitram will be distributing the film in Telugu. Udayanidhi Stalin's Red Giant Movies is in charge of the Tamil circle and the distribution in Malayalam will be done by Mohanlal under his Aashirvad Films banner," says Prem

"KD is based on true incidents and it will not be a regular period film. The project is not about a particular person and has an underlying message," he adds.

About the casting for the heroine, he says,"I'm planning to sign a heroine from Kannada, who can commit herself completely to the project," adding, "There are a lot of actors from across regions collaborating for the project, and an official confirmation will be made once we get a nod from all of them."

The music of KD is scored by Arjun Janya.

INTENSE THROWBACK TO THE BRUTAL B'LORE OF '70S

A SHARADHAA

THERE are certain journeys where people find themselves in pursuit of some dishonest and unsettling goals. Head Bush tells the tale of one such man. The life of Bengaluru's first underworld don MP Jayaraj has been redefined time and again in Kannada cinema history. The latest iteration is director Shoonya's Head Bush, which is based on the book — Dadagiriya Dinagalu by Agni Sreedhar, which was translated to English as My Days in the Underworld – Rise of Bangalore Mafia. The book gives a first-hand account of the mafia world and the experiences encountered by him, and the film adapts these incidents with cinematic liberties, of course.

Over the last two decades, we have seen a lot of films based on the underworld like Om, Kariya, Jogi, Aa Dinagalu and Edgegarike. They are still talked about, and Head Bush is the latest film to try joining this elite list.

Head Bush is a gangster drama, which is told through Ravichandran's character, who plays a professor. The film will be out in two parts, and the first part follows the life of MP Jayaraj (Dhananjay), tracing his life from his teenage days. Surrounded by his friends, Ganga (Yogi) and Samson (Balu Nagendra), Jayaraj eventually becomes a ganglord, who is also portrayed as a Robin Hood to the people. The film takes a political turn when the mobster gang joins hands with MDN (Raghu Mukherjee) who was instrumental in forming the Indira Brigade during the tenure of Devaraj Urs (Devaraj) as Chief Minister, under the guidance of then Prime Minister, Indira Gandhi (Avantika). The rest of the film follows the themes of friends turning foes, a dash of romance, a game-changing character, and the presence of a stern police officer.

Shoonya puts up a daring narration while observing caution, especially with the dialogues and violence in the big-budget film. Many characters in the film come with the names of real-life people, and Head Bush tries to stay true to the incidents of that period.

The action thriller is bloody, raw, and rustic, and it definitely engages the audience. Since the film is coming out in two parts, the makers have taken the liberty to properly pace their world building. Shoonya takes time to introduce the characters, which are based on prominent personalities and political honchos like R Gundu Rao, and FM Khan among others. The film also explains that the city, which we thought was built and developed by politicians, officials, and the common people, also included the underworld. We see the rise of the don MP Jayaraj in this instalment, and his fall leads to the sequel. Another highlight of Head Bush is the way the Karga culture is brought into the picture.

Head Bush boasts of a big ensemble, and each character in the film comes with shades of grey. Right from the way he looks and behaves, Dhananjay delivers an incredible performance as Jayaraj. The rest of the actors too get their required space. Yogesh and Balu Nagendra as Jayaraj's good friends nail their respective roles. Payal Rajput is charming in her Kannada debut, and Sruthi Hariharan as Rathna Prabha (Devaraj Urs's daughter) definitely needs a special mention. Vasishta Simha as Kothwal Ramachandra gets a meaty role but gets limited screen space in part 1. Poorchandra Mysuru and Roshan Bachchan also make their presence felt. Prakash Belawadi, as a police officer, and Devaraj as Chief Minister have lived up to their respective characters.

The beauty of Head Bush lies in its action sequences, while music by Charan Raj is apt for a gangster movie. Sunoj Velayudhan's cinematography blends with the story and Badal Nanjundaswamy's artwork gives an up-close view of Bengaluru of the '70s period.

Overall, Head Bush highlights crime, friendship, and family, and makes for a perfect outing for lovers of gangster films.

RAJ B SHETTY TO JOIN SHIVARAJKUMAR AND UPENDRA'S FILM 45

CE FEATURES

MUSIC composer Arjun Janya is all set to make his directorial debut with the upcoming big-budget film, 45. The first-time director has managed to rope in an interesting cast for the multistarrer.

Earlier, we reported that 45 will star Shivarajkumar and Upendra in the leads. Now, it has come to light that noted actor-filmmaker Raj B Shetty is joining the project.

Confirming to CE that he will be part of CE, Raj B Shetty says, "With my current commitments, I was skeptical about taking up any project. But my decision changed after meeting composer turned-director Arjun Janya. He was honest and genuine, and well-prepared for the project. He and his producer (Ramesh Reddy) were open to my suggestions. I realised that Arjun Janya had only one hunger to make a good film, and he thought I fit the bill. He is thinking like a director, which is an important quality, and I'm looking forward to working in this film along with Shivarajkumar and Upendra."

While 45 will reunite Shivanna and Upendra for the fourth time after Om, Preetse, and Lava-Kush, this is the first time Raj will be sharing screen space with Shivanna and Upendra.

Speaking to CE, Arjun says, "Leaving aside that the film marks my debut as a director, it is essentially the script that has brought in the actors for 45."

Billed to be a mass entertainer with a first-of-its-kind subject, Arjun shares that all three stars have an equal role to play in the film.

Bankrolled by Ramesh Reddy (Nathicharami, Gaalipata 2) under his Suraj Production banner, 45 will have Arjun composing the music, and writing the story and screenplay.

Currently, in the pre-production stage, the makers of 45 have plans to make this a multilingual project by releasing it in Kannada, Telugu, Tamil, Malayalam, and Hindi.

Meanwhile, Raj is busy writing the script for his next directorial, Swathi Mutthina Male Haniye, which also stars him in the lead along with Ramya. Shivarajkumar, who is waiting for Vedha, is currently shooting for Srini's Ghost. Upendra is busy with his next directorial project UI, which is currently on floors.

Ramya opts out of acting in Swathi Mutthina Male Haniye, Siri Ravikumar in

CE FEATURES

ACTOR Ramya who was supposed to play the lead in Swathi Mutthina Male Haniye, has opted out of acting in the film. The Raj B Shetty directorial will now star Siri Ravikumar of Kavaludaari fame.

But Ramya is still on board as the producer and will be bankrolling the film under her banner Apple Box Studios. A statement released by the production house read, "Divya Spandana (Ramya) took this call as she thought a newcomer would suit the role better. Swathi Mutthina Haniye is a beautiful, poetic film and we can't wait for you all to watch it."

The statement also clarified that Ramya will be back to acting soon and an official announcement regarding the project will be made shortly.

It may be noted that in an interview with us, Raj had told that, "Ramya and I are unconventional people, and there lies the beauty of this pairing. I didn't see anybody else, who could bring in so much to this character."

Ramya was last seen in 2016's Nagarahavu, directed by Kodi Ramakrishna. Raj B Shetty last made and starred in the hit film Garuda Gamana Vrishabha Vahana.
